

CITATIONS DE CANDICE HOEPNER ET SES COLLÈGUES (Mai – Août 2010)

Bien que nous croyons qu'un sujet aussi important que le contrôle des armes ne devrait PAS faire l'objet d'un vote libre, les conservateurs clament haut et fort que les députés devraient voter selon les souhaits de leurs électeurs. Or, ce principe ne semble pas s'appliquer aux conservateurs du Québec, où l'appui pour le registre est manifestement élevé... Le vote des conservateurs, serait-il secrètement « fouetté »?

Although we believe that an issue as important as gun control should NOT be subject to a free vote, the Conservatives claim that MPs should vote according the wishes of their constituents. This, however, does not seem to apply to Conservative members of parliament in Quebec, where public support for the registry remains decidedly high... Or is the Conservative vote being secretly whipped?

— Le Groupe des étudiants et diplômés de Polytechnique pour le contrôle des armes

(Nos soulignés)

Ms. Hoepner agrees the NDP is the key to her bill's survival. "The only way it won't be killed is if I get some NDP support," she said on Thursday ... Ms. Hoepner acknowledged she launched the bill as a private member as a tactical measure: It has a better chance of passing because of free votes allowed on private member's bills.

National Post, June 4, 2010,

<http://www.nationalpost.com/news/canada/controls+registry+fate/3115269/story.html>

"The vast majority of your constituents asked you to help scrap the long-gun registry ..."

Garry Breitreuz, email to NDP MPs, August 31, 2010, posted at

<http://www.cbc.ca/politics/insidepolitics/2010/08/cons-ndp-exchange-emails-on-long-gun-registry.html>

"I hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will put the call of their constituents above the orders of the Liberal leader." ... "We should have no more political games by members, like the member for Malpeque. The constituents deserve better." ... "We call on all opposition members who voted in favour of Bill C-391 at second reading to listen to their constituents, not the Liberal leader and to scrap the long gun registry."

Vic Toews, Minister of Public Safety, "Statements By Members", April 28, June 7 and 10 2010,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"Once again, I also ask that both the Liberal and NDP leaders do the right thing and allow all of their MPs to vote freely on this issue and have the ability to truly reflect their own beliefs and that of their constituents."

Candice Hoepner, "Statements By Members", June 17 2010, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"We call upon all opposition members who voted in favour of Bill C-391 at second reading to stand up for their constituents and vote to scrap the long gun registry once and for all."

Shelly Glove, Conservative member of the Standing Committee on Public Safety and National Security,

"Statements By Members", June 9 2010, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"No more political games by members ... the constituents deserve better."

Candice Hoepner, quoted in the Globe and Mail, Ottawa Notebook Column, June 8, 2010. "Liberals aim to put a bullet in bill to scrap gun registry", <http://www.theglobeandmail.com/news/politics/ottawa-notebook/liberals-aim-to-put-a-bullet-in-bill-to-scrap-gun-registry/article1596013/>

"The passing of this motion by the opposition parties is further evidence that they are more interested in playing partisan political games with the long gun registry than doing the right thing and speaking on behalf of their hard-working, law-abiding constituents"

Ben Lobb, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 7 2010,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

Hoeppepner and the Conservatives argue NDP and Liberal MPs who vote to keep the gun registry will be defeated in the next election. "MPs will be held accountable by their constituents," Hoeppepner said.

Edmonton Journal, June 4, 2010. "Future of gun registry is in Layton's hands",
http://www.edmontonjournal.com/mobile/story.html?id=3109848&utm_source=twitterfeed&utm_medium=twitter

"This vote by the opposition parties proves that when it comes to the wasteful and ineffective long gun registry, the opposition is more interested in playing political games than doing the right thing and standing up for their constituents."

Rick Norlock, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 4 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"Will he allow his vote to be whipped by the Liberal leader, or will he listen to the voices of his constituents instead? Those 20 opposition MPs who did the right thing at second reading and voted to scrap the long gun registry will have to explain to their constituents why they allowed their party bosses to whip their vote and silence their voices. When it comes to the long gun registry, MPs can either vote to keep it or vote to scrap it. It is that simple."

Brian Jean, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 4 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"Twelve NDP and eight Liberal Members of Parliament supported my bill at second reading. The question remains – what will those MPs do when it once again comes time to vote on this in the House?" Hoeppepner continued. "Will they tow the party line and vote to keep the registry, or do the right thing, listen to their constituents, and vote to scrap the registry?"

Candice Hoeppepner, Press Release, June 3, 2010. http://candicehoeppepner.com/pg_news/details.asp?ID=159

"Mr. Speaker, constituents expect that democracy will be respected and those elected to Parliament will vote on their behalf. This is why the Liberal leader's decision to whip the vote on the long gun registry is so concerning. What will the members who voted for Bill C-391 at second reading do? Will they ignore the voices of their constituents? Will they allow their vote to be whipped by the Liberal leader? I urge all NDP and Liberal members, who voted for Bill C-391 at second reading, to listen to their constituents and not allow their votes to be determined by the Liberal leader"

Guy Lauzon, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 3 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"For the Liberal leader and the member for Ajax--Pickering the voices of constituents do not matter and the votes of Liberal MPs who supported Bill C-391 at second reading do not count."

Dave MacKenzy, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 2 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"When the Liberal leader attempts to ignore the will of his members' constituents, he proves that he is not in it for Canadians. He is only in it for himself."

Scott Armstrong, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 2 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=3>

"Would the parliamentary secretary please tell the House why NDP and Liberal MPs should listen to their constituents rather than their party whips before voting on Bill C-391?"

Scott Reid, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", May 28 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=3>

... Candice Hoeppepner, the Manitoba Conservative MP behind the bill to abolish the registry, sent out letters to individual homes in the riding of PEI MP Wayne Easter ... "Dear Friend," her letter begins. "Does your Liberal MP stand up for what you believe in?" ... It seems the Liberal Leader is whipping the vote, she explains, and the voices of the eight MPs no longer count as he is "forcing them to support the long-gun registry." So what to do? She asks the constituents to contact their Liberal MP and "encourage him to stand up against Michael Ignatieff's attempts to force him to vote against your interests."

Globe and Mail, May 12, 2010. "Tories bend rules on partisan mail to blast gun registry",
<http://www.theglobeandmail.com/news/politics/ottawa-notebook/tories-bend-rules-on-partisan-mail-to-blast-gun-registry/article1565897/>

“Last Monday, much to the dismay of some of his caucus members, Liberal leader Michael Ignatieff said he would whip the vote and prevent Liberal MPs from voting to represent their constituents' wishes when the bill returns to the House for Final Reading.... It all sends a clear message that the Ignatieff Liberals and their coalition partners ... don't care much for democracy ... MPs need to remember that at the end of the day, we came here for a reason – to represent our constituents. Liberal MPs who supported ending the long-gun registry last November need to now stand up to their leader and stand up for their constituents. Their voters deserve nothing less.”

The Mark, May 10, 2010. “Blasting Bad Democracy. The Liberals are using undemocratic tactics to save Canada's wasteful and ineffective long-gun registry” By Candice Hoepfner, MP Portage-Lisgar,
<http://www.themarknews.com/articles/1450-blasting-bad-democracy>

“The Liberal leader is whipping his members to ignore their constituents and support the wasteful long gun registry. I hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will not deceive their constituents and change their votes.”

Randy Hoback, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, May 3 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“We hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will not deceive their constituents by changing their vote just to satisfy the Liberal leader.”

Kelly Block, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 30 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“I call upon the Liberal eight as well as my colleague from Wascana to stand up for their constituents and vote for their wishes and vote to end the long gun registry.”

Tom Lukiwsk, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 30 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“Mr. Speaker, sadly, the Liberal leader is whipping his members to ignore their conscience and their constituents and to vote for the wasteful long gun registry.”

Brent Rathgeber, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 28 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>

“However, what they should do is tell their constituents that they will ignore the Liberal leader's direction and vote with their constituents.”

Blake Richards, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 22nd 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>

CITATIONS DE CANDICE HOEPNER ET SES COLLÈGUES (Mai – Août 2010)

Bien que nous croyons qu'un sujet aussi important que le contrôle des armes ne devrait PAS faire l'objet d'un vote libre, les conservateurs clament haut et fort que les députés devraient voter selon les souhaits de leurs électeurs. Or, ce principe ne semble pas s'appliquer aux conservateurs du Québec, où l'appui pour le registre est manifestement élevé... Le vote des conservateurs, serait-il secrètement « fouetté »?

Although we believe that an issue as important as gun control should NOT be subject to a free vote, the Conservatives claim that MPs should vote according the wishes of their constituents. This, however, does not seem to apply to Conservative members of parliament in Quebec, where public support for the registry remains decidedly high... Or is the Conservative vote being secretly whipped?

— Le Groupe des étudiants et diplômés de Polytechnique pour le contrôle des armes

(Nos soulignés)

Ms. Hoepner agrees the NDP is the key to her bill's survival. "The only way it won't be killed is if I get some NDP support," she said on Thursday ... Ms. Hoepner acknowledged she launched the bill as a private member as a tactical measure: It has a better chance of passing because of free votes allowed on private member's bills.

National Post, June 4, 2010,

<http://www.nationalpost.com/news/canada/controls+registry+fate/3115269/story.html>

"The vast majority of your constituents asked you to help scrap the long-gun registry ..."

Garry Breitzkreuz, email to NDP MPs, August 31, 2010, posted at

<http://www.cbc.ca/politics/insidepolitics/2010/08/cons-ndp-exchange-emails-on-long-gun-registry.html>

"I hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will put the call of their constituents above the orders of the Liberal leader." ... "We should have no more political games by members, like the member for Malpeque. The constituents deserve better." ... "We call on all opposition members who voted in favour of Bill C-391 at second reading to listen to their constituents, not the Liberal leader and to scrap the long gun registry."

Vic Toews, Minister of Public Safety, "Statements By Members", April 28, June 7 and 10 2010,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"Once again, I also ask that both the Liberal and NDP leaders do the right thing and allow all of their MPs to vote freely on this issue and have the ability to truly reflect their own beliefs and that of their constituents."

Candice Hoepner, "Statements By Members", June 17 2010, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"We call upon all opposition members who voted in favour of Bill C-391 at second reading to stand up for their constituents and vote to scrap the long gun registry once and for all."

Shelly Glove, Conservative member of the Standing Committee on Public Safety and National Security,

"Statements By Members", June 9 2010, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"No more political games by members ... the constituents deserve better."

Candice Hoepner, quoted in the Globe and Mail, Ottawa Notebook Column, June 8, 2010. "Liberals aim to put a bullet in bill to scrap gun registry", <http://www.theglobeandmail.com/news/politics/ottawa-notebook/liberals-aim-to-put-a-bullet-in-bill-to-scrap-gun-registry/article1596013/>

"The passing of this motion by the opposition parties is further evidence that they are more interested in playing partisan political games with the long gun registry than doing the right thing and speaking on behalf of their hard-working, law-abiding constituents"

Ben Lobb, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 7 2010,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

Hoeppepner and the Conservatives argue NDP and Liberal MPs who vote to keep the gun registry will be defeated in the next election. "MPs will be held accountable by their constituents," Hoeppepner said.

Edmonton Journal, June 4, 2010. "Future of gun registry is in Layton's hands",
http://www.edmontonjournal.com/mobile/story.html?id=3109848&utm_source=twitterfeed&utm_medium=twitter

"This vote by the opposition parties proves that when it comes to the wasteful and ineffective long gun registry, the opposition is more interested in playing political games than doing the right thing and standing up for their constituents."

Rick Norlock, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 4 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"Will he allow his vote to be whipped by the Liberal leader, or will he listen to the voices of his constituents instead? Those 20 opposition MPs who did the right thing at second reading and voted to scrap the long gun registry will have to explain to their constituents why they allowed their party bosses to whip their vote and silence their voices. When it comes to the long gun registry, MPs can either vote to keep it or vote to scrap it. It is that simple."

Brian Jean, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 4 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"Twelve NDP and eight Liberal Members of Parliament supported my bill at second reading. The question remains – what will those MPs do when it once again comes time to vote on this in the House?" Hoeppepner continued. "Will they tow the party line and vote to keep the registry, or do the right thing, listen to their constituents, and vote to scrap the registry?"

Candice Hoeppepner, Press Release, June 3, 2010. http://candicehoeppepner.com/pg_news/details.asp?ID=159

"Mr. Speaker, constituents expect that democracy will be respected and those elected to Parliament will vote on their behalf. This is why the Liberal leader's decision to whip the vote on the long gun registry is so concerning. What will the members who voted for Bill C-391 at second reading do? Will they ignore the voices of their constituents? Will they allow their vote to be whipped by the Liberal leader? I urge all NDP and Liberal members, who voted for Bill C-391 at second reading, to listen to their constituents and not allow their votes to be determined by the Liberal leader"

Guy Lauzon, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 3 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"For the Liberal leader and the member for Ajax--Pickering the voices of constituents do not matter and the votes of Liberal MPs who supported Bill C-391 at second reading do not count."

Dave MacKenzy, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 2 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"When the Liberal leader attempts to ignore the will of his members' constituents, he proves that he is not in it for Canadians. He is only in it for himself."

Scott Armstrong, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 2 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=3>

"Would the parliamentary secretary please tell the House why NDP and Liberal MPs should listen to their constituents rather than their party whips before voting on Bill C-391?"

Scott Reid, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", May 28 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=3>

... Candice Hoeppepner, the Manitoba Conservative MP behind the bill to abolish the registry, sent out letters to individual homes in the riding of PEI MP Wayne Easter ... "Dear Friend," her letter begins. "Does your Liberal MP stand up for what you believe in?" ... It seems the Liberal Leader is whipping the vote, she explains, and the voices of the eight MPs no longer count as he is "forcing them to support the long-gun registry." So what to do? She asks the constituents to contact their Liberal MP and "encourage him to stand up against Michael Ignatieff's attempts to force him to vote against your interests."

Globe and Mail, May 12, 2010. "Tories bend rules on partisan mail to blast gun registry",
<http://www.theglobeandmail.com/news/politics/ottawa-notebook/tories-bend-rules-on-partisan-mail-to-blast-gun-registry/article1565897/>

“Last Monday, much to the dismay of some of his caucus members, Liberal leader Michael Ignatieff said he would whip the vote and prevent Liberal MPs from voting to represent their constituents' wishes when the bill returns to the House for Final Reading.... It all sends a clear message that the Ignatieff Liberals and their coalition partners ... don't care much for democracy ... MPs need to remember that at the end of the day, we came here for a reason – to represent our constituents. Liberal MPs who supported ending the long-gun registry last November need to now stand up to their leader and stand up for their constituents. Their voters deserve nothing less.”

The Mark, May 10, 2010. “Blasting Bad Democracy. The Liberals are using undemocratic tactics to save Canada's wasteful and ineffective long-gun registry” By Candice Hoepfner, MP Portage-Lisgar,
<http://www.themarknews.com/articles/1450-blasting-bad-democracy>

“The Liberal leader is whipping his members to ignore their constituents and support the wasteful long gun registry. I hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will not deceive their constituents and change their votes.”

Randy Hoback, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, May 3 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“We hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will not deceive their constituents by changing their vote just to satisfy the Liberal leader.”

Kelly Block, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 30 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“I call upon the Liberal eight as well as my colleague from Wascana to stand up for their constituents and vote for their wishes and vote to end the long gun registry.”

Tom Lukiwsk, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 30 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“Mr. Speaker, sadly, the Liberal leader is whipping his members to ignore their conscience and their constituents and to vote for the wasteful long gun registry.”

Brent Rathgeber, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 28 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>

“However, what they should do is tell their constituents that they will ignore the Liberal leader's direction and vote with their constituents.”

Blake Richards, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 22nd 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>

CITATIONS DE CANDICE HOEPNER ET SES COLLÈGUES (Mai – Août 2010)

Bien que nous croyons qu'un sujet aussi important que le contrôle des armes ne devrait PAS faire l'objet d'un vote libre, les conservateurs clament haut et fort que les députés devraient voter selon les souhaits de leurs électeurs. Or, ce principe ne semble pas s'appliquer aux conservateurs du Québec, où l'appui pour le registre est manifestement élevé... Le vote des conservateurs, serait-il secrètement « fouetté »?

Although we believe that an issue as important as gun control should NOT be subject to a free vote, the Conservatives claim that MPs should vote according the wishes of their constituents. This, however, does not seem to apply to Conservative members of parliament in Quebec, where public support for the registry remains decidedly high... Or is the Conservative vote being secretly whipped?

— Le Groupe des étudiants et diplômés de Polytechnique pour le contrôle des armes

(Nos soulignés)

Ms. Hoepner agrees the NDP is the key to her bill's survival. "The only way it won't be killed is if I get some NDP support," she said on Thursday ... Ms. Hoepner acknowledged she launched the bill as a private member as a tactical measure: It has a better chance of passing because of free votes allowed on private member's bills.

National Post, June 4, 2010,

<http://www.nationalpost.com/news/canada/controls+registry+fate/3115269/story.html>

"The vast majority of your constituents asked you to help scrap the long-gun registry ..."

Garry Breitkreuz, email to NDP MPs, August 31, 2010, posted at

<http://www.cbc.ca/politics/insidepolitics/2010/08/cons-ndp-exchange-emails-on-long-gun-registry.html>

"I hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will put the call of their constituents above the orders of the Liberal leader." ... "We should have no more political games by members, like the member for Malpeque. The constituents deserve better." ... "We call on all opposition members who voted in favour of Bill C-391 at second reading to listen to their constituents, not the Liberal leader and to scrap the long gun registry."

Vic Toews, Minister of Public Safety, "Statements By Members", April 28, June 7 and 10 2010,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"Once again, I also ask that both the Liberal and NDP leaders do the right thing and allow all of their MPs to vote freely on this issue and have the ability to truly reflect their own beliefs and that of their constituents."

Candice Hoepner, "Statements By Members", June 17 2010, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"We call upon all opposition members who voted in favour of Bill C-391 at second reading to stand up for their constituents and vote to scrap the long gun registry once and for all."

Shelly Glove, Conservative member of the Standing Committee on Public Safety and National Security,

"Statements By Members", June 9 2010, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"No more political games by members ... the constituents deserve better."

Candice Hoepner, quoted in the Globe and Mail, Ottawa Notebook Column, June 8, 2010. "Liberals aim to put a bullet in bill to scrap gun registry", <http://www.theglobeandmail.com/news/politics/ottawa-notebook/liberals-aim-to-put-a-bullet-in-bill-to-scrap-gun-registry/article1596013/>

"The passing of this motion by the opposition parties is further evidence that they are more interested in playing partisan political games with the long gun registry than doing the right thing and speaking on behalf of their hard-working, law-abiding constituents"

Ben Lobb, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 7 2010,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

Hoeppepner and the Conservatives argue NDP and Liberal MPs who vote to keep the gun registry will be defeated in the next election. "MPs will be held accountable by their constituents," Hoeppepner said.

Edmonton Journal, June 4, 2010. "Future of gun registry is in Layton's hands",
http://www.edmontonjournal.com/mobile/story.html?id=3109848&utm_source=twitterfeed&utm_medium=twitter

"This vote by the opposition parties proves that when it comes to the wasteful and ineffective long gun registry, the opposition is more interested in playing political games than doing the right thing and standing up for their constituents."

Rick Norlock, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 4 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"Will he allow his vote to be whipped by the Liberal leader, or will he listen to the voices of his constituents instead? Those 20 opposition MPs who did the right thing at second reading and voted to scrap the long gun registry will have to explain to their constituents why they allowed their party bosses to whip their vote and silence their voices. When it comes to the long gun registry, MPs can either vote to keep it or vote to scrap it. It is that simple."

Brian Jean, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 4 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"Twelve NDP and eight Liberal Members of Parliament supported my bill at second reading. The question remains – what will those MPs do when it once again comes time to vote on this in the House?" Hoeppepner continued. "Will they tow the party line and vote to keep the registry, or do the right thing, listen to their constituents, and vote to scrap the registry?"

Candice Hoeppepner, Press Release, June 3, 2010. http://candicehoeppepner.com/pg_news/details.asp?ID=159

"Mr. Speaker, constituents expect that democracy will be respected and those elected to Parliament will vote on their behalf. This is why the Liberal leader's decision to whip the vote on the long gun registry is so concerning. What will the members who voted for Bill C-391 at second reading do? Will they ignore the voices of their constituents? Will they allow their vote to be whipped by the Liberal leader? I urge all NDP and Liberal members, who voted for Bill C-391 at second reading, to listen to their constituents and not allow their votes to be determined by the Liberal leader"

Guy Lauzon, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 3 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"For the Liberal leader and the member for Ajax--Pickering the voices of constituents do not matter and the votes of Liberal MPs who supported Bill C-391 at second reading do not count."

Dave MacKenzy, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 2 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"When the Liberal leader attempts to ignore the will of his members' constituents, he proves that he is not in it for Canadians. He is only in it for himself."

Scott Armstrong, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 2 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=3>

"Would the parliamentary secretary please tell the House why NDP and Liberal MPs should listen to their constituents rather than their party whips before voting on Bill C-391?"

Scott Reid, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", May 28 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=3>

... Candice Hoeppepner, the Manitoba Conservative MP behind the bill to abolish the registry, sent out letters to individual homes in the riding of PEI MP Wayne Easter ... "Dear Friend," her letter begins. "Does your Liberal MP stand up for what you believe in?" ... It seems the Liberal Leader is whipping the vote, she explains, and the voices of the eight MPs no longer count as he is "forcing them to support the long-gun registry." So what to do? She asks the constituents to contact their Liberal MP and "encourage him to stand up against Michael Ignatieff's attempts to force him to vote against your interests."

Globe and Mail, May 12, 2010. "Tories bend rules on partisan mail to blast gun registry",
<http://www.theglobeandmail.com/news/politics/ottawa-notebook/tories-bend-rules-on-partisan-mail-to-blast-gun-registry/article1565897/>

“Last Monday, much to the dismay of some of his caucus members, Liberal leader Michael Ignatieff said he would whip the vote and prevent Liberal MPs from voting to represent their constituents' wishes when the bill returns to the House for Final Reading.... It all sends a clear message that the Ignatieff Liberals and their coalition partners ... don't care much for democracy ... MPs need to remember that at the end of the day, we came here for a reason – to represent our constituents. Liberal MPs who supported ending the long-gun registry last November need to now stand up to their leader and stand up for their constituents. Their voters deserve nothing less.”

The Mark, May 10, 2010. “Blasting Bad Democracy. The Liberals are using undemocratic tactics to save Canada's wasteful and ineffective long-gun registry” By Candice Hoepfner, MP Portage-Lisgar,
<http://www.themarknews.com/articles/1450-blasting-bad-democracy>

“The Liberal leader is whipping his members to ignore their constituents and support the wasteful long gun registry. I hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will not deceive their constituents and change their votes.”

Randy Hoback, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, May 3 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“We hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will not deceive their constituents by changing their vote just to satisfy the Liberal leader.”

Kelly Block, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 30 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“I call upon the Liberal eight as well as my colleague from Wascana to stand up for their constituents and vote for their wishes and vote to end the long gun registry.”

Tom Lukiwsk, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 30 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“Mr. Speaker, sadly, the Liberal leader is whipping his members to ignore their conscience and their constituents and to vote for the wasteful long gun registry.”

Brent Rathgeber, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 28 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>

“However, what they should do is tell their constituents that they will ignore the Liberal leader's direction and vote with their constituents.”

Blake Richards, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 22nd 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>

CITATIONS DE CANDICE HOEPNER ET SES COLLÈGUES (Mai – Août 2010)

Bien que nous croyons qu'un sujet aussi important que le contrôle des armes ne devrait PAS faire l'objet d'un vote libre, les conservateurs clament haut et fort que les députés devraient voter selon les souhaits de leurs électeurs. Or, ce principe ne semble pas s'appliquer aux conservateurs du Québec, où l'appui pour le registre est manifestement élevé... Le vote des conservateurs, serait-il secrètement « fouetté »?

Although we believe that an issue as important as gun control should NOT be subject to a free vote, the Conservatives claim that MPs should vote according the wishes of their constituents. This, however, does not seem to apply to Conservative members of parliament in Quebec, where public support for the registry remains decidedly high... Or is the Conservative vote being secretly whipped?

— Le Groupe des étudiants et diplômés de Polytechnique pour le contrôle des armes

(Nos soulignés)

Ms. Hoepner agrees the NDP is the key to her bill's survival. "The only way it won't be killed is if I get some NDP support," she said on Thursday ... Ms. Hoepner acknowledged she launched the bill as a private member as a tactical measure: It has a better chance of passing because of free votes allowed on private member's bills.

National Post, June 4, 2010,

<http://www.nationalpost.com/news/canada/controls+registry+fate/3115269/story.html>

"The vast majority of your constituents asked you to help scrap the long-gun registry ..."

Garry Breitzkreuz, email to NDP MPs, August 31, 2010, posted at

<http://www.cbc.ca/politics/insidepolitics/2010/08/cons-ndp-exchange-emails-on-long-gun-registry.html>

"I hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will put the call of their constituents above the orders of the Liberal leader." ... "We should have no more political games by members, like the member for Malpeque. The constituents deserve better." ... "We call on all opposition members who voted in favour of Bill C-391 at second reading to listen to their constituents, not the Liberal leader and to scrap the long gun registry."

Vic Toews, Minister of Public Safety, "Statements By Members", April 28, June 7 and 10 2010,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"Once again, I also ask that both the Liberal and NDP leaders do the right thing and allow all of their MPs to vote freely on this issue and have the ability to truly reflect their own beliefs and that of their constituents."

Candice Hoepner, "Statements By Members", June 17 2010, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"We call upon all opposition members who voted in favour of Bill C-391 at second reading to stand up for their constituents and vote to scrap the long gun registry once and for all."

Shelly Glove, Conservative member of the Standing Committee on Public Safety and National Security,

"Statements By Members", June 9 2010, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"No more political games by members ... the constituents deserve better."

Candice Hoepner, quoted in the Globe and Mail, Ottawa Notebook Column, June 8, 2010. "Liberals aim to put a bullet in bill to scrap gun registry", <http://www.theglobeandmail.com/news/politics/ottawa-notebook/liberals-aim-to-put-a-bullet-in-bill-to-scrap-gun-registry/article1596013/>

"The passing of this motion by the opposition parties is further evidence that they are more interested in playing partisan political games with the long gun registry than doing the right thing and speaking on behalf of their hard-working, law-abiding constituents"

Ben Lobb, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 7 2010,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

Hoepfner and the Conservatives argue NDP and Liberal MPs who vote to keep the gun registry will be defeated in the next election. "MPs will be held accountable by their constituents," Hoepfner said.

Edmonton Journal, June 4, 2010. "Future of gun registry is in Layton's hands",
http://www.edmontonjournal.com/mobile/story.html?id=3109848&utm_source=twitterfeed&utm_medium=twitter

"This vote by the opposition parties proves that when it comes to the wasteful and ineffective long gun registry, the opposition is more interested in playing political games than doing the right thing and standing up for their constituents."

Rick Norlock, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 4 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"Will he allow his vote to be whipped by the Liberal leader, or will he listen to the voices of his constituents instead? Those 20 opposition MPs who did the right thing at second reading and voted to scrap the long gun registry will have to explain to their constituents why they allowed their party bosses to whip their vote and silence their voices. When it comes to the long gun registry, MPs can either vote to keep it or vote to scrap it. It is that simple."

Brian Jean, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 4 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"Twelve NDP and eight Liberal Members of Parliament supported my bill at second reading. The question remains – what will those MPs do when it once again comes time to vote on this in the House?" Hoepfner continued. "Will they tow the party line and vote to keep the registry, or do the right thing, listen to their constituents, and vote to scrap the registry?"

Candice Hoepfner, Press Release, June 3, 2010. http://candicehoepfner.com/pg_news/details.asp?ID=159

"Mr. Speaker, constituents expect that democracy will be respected and those elected to Parliament will vote on their behalf. This is why the Liberal leader's decision to whip the vote on the long gun registry is so concerning. What will the members who voted for Bill C-391 at second reading do? Will they ignore the voices of their constituents? Will they allow their vote to be whipped by the Liberal leader? I urge all NDP and Liberal members, who voted for Bill C-391 at second reading, to listen to their constituents and not allow their votes to be determined by the Liberal leader"

Guy Lauzon, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 3 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"For the Liberal leader and the member for Ajax--Pickering the voices of constituents do not matter and the votes of Liberal MPs who supported Bill C-391 at second reading do not count."

Dave MacKenzy, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 2 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"When the Liberal leader attempts to ignore the will of his members' constituents, he proves that he is not in it for Canadians. He is only in it for himself."

Scott Armstrong, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 2 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=3>

"Would the parliamentary secretary please tell the House why NDP and Liberal MPs should listen to their constituents rather than their party whips before voting on Bill C-391?"

Scott Reid, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", May 28 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=3>

... Candice Hoepfner, the Manitoba Conservative MP behind the bill to abolish the registry, sent out letters to individual homes in the riding of PEI MP Wayne Easter ... "Dear Friend," her letter begins. "Does your Liberal MP stand up for what you believe in?" ... It seems the Liberal Leader is whipping the vote, she explains, and the voices of the eight MPs no longer count as he is "forcing them to support the long-gun registry." So what to do? She asks the constituents to contact their Liberal MP and "encourage him to stand up against Michael Ignatieff's attempts to force him to vote against your interests."

Globe and Mail, May 12, 2010. "Tories bend rules on partisan mail to blast gun registry",
<http://www.theglobeandmail.com/news/politics/ottawa-notebook/tories-bend-rules-on-partisan-mail-to-blast-gun-registry/article1565897/>

“Last Monday, much to the dismay of some of his caucus members, Liberal leader Michael Ignatieff said he would whip the vote and prevent Liberal MPs from voting to represent their constituents' wishes when the bill returns to the House for Final Reading.... It all sends a clear message that the Ignatieff Liberals and their coalition partners ... don't care much for democracy ... MPs need to remember that at the end of the day, we came here for a reason – to represent our constituents. Liberal MPs who supported ending the long-gun registry last November need to now stand up to their leader and stand up for their constituents. Their voters deserve nothing less.”

The Mark, May 10, 2010. “Blasting Bad Democracy. The Liberals are using undemocratic tactics to save Canada's wasteful and ineffective long-gun registry” By Candice Hoepfner, MP Portage-Lisgar,
<http://www.themarknews.com/articles/1450-blasting-bad-democracy>

“The Liberal leader is whipping his members to ignore their constituents and support the wasteful long gun registry. I hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will not deceive their constituents and change their votes.”

Randy Hoback, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, May 3 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“We hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will not deceive their constituents by changing their vote just to satisfy the Liberal leader.”

Kelly Block, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 30 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“I call upon the Liberal eight as well as my colleague from Wascana to stand up for their constituents and vote for their wishes and vote to end the long gun registry.”

Tom Lukiwsk, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 30 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“Mr. Speaker, sadly, the Liberal leader is whipping his members to ignore their conscience and their constituents and to vote for the wasteful long gun registry.”

Brent Rathgeber, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 28 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>

“However, what they should do is tell their constituents that they will ignore the Liberal leader's direction and vote with their constituents.”

Blake Richards, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 22nd 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>

CITATIONS DE CANDICE HOEPNER ET SES COLLÈGUES (Mai – Août 2010)

Bien que nous croyons qu'un sujet aussi important que le contrôle des armes ne devrait PAS faire l'objet d'un vote libre, les conservateurs clament haut et fort que les députés devraient voter selon les souhaits de leurs électeurs. Or, ce principe ne semble pas s'appliquer aux conservateurs du Québec, où l'appui pour le registre est manifestement élevé... Le vote des conservateurs, serait-il secrètement « fouetté »?

Although we believe that an issue as important as gun control should NOT be subject to a free vote, the Conservatives claim that MPs should vote according the wishes of their constituents. This, however, does not seem to apply to Conservative members of parliament in Quebec, where public support for the registry remains decidedly high... Or is the Conservative vote being secretly whipped?

— Le Groupe des étudiants et diplômés de Polytechnique pour le contrôle des armes

(Nos soulignés)

Ms. Hoepner agrees the NDP is the key to her bill's survival. "The only way it won't be killed is if I get some NDP support," she said on Thursday ... Ms. Hoepner acknowledged she launched the bill as a private member as a tactical measure: It has a better chance of passing because of free votes allowed on private member's bills.

National Post, June 4, 2010,

<http://www.nationalpost.com/news/canada/controls+registry+fate/3115269/story.html>

"The vast majority of your constituents asked you to help scrap the long-gun registry ..."

Garry Breitzkreuz, email to NDP MPs, August 31, 2010, posted at

<http://www.cbc.ca/politics/insidepolitics/2010/08/cons-ndp-exchange-emails-on-long-gun-registry.html>

"I hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will put the call of their constituents above the orders of the Liberal leader." ... "We should have no more political games by members, like the member for Malpeque. The constituents deserve better." ... "We call on all opposition members who voted in favour of Bill C-391 at second reading to listen to their constituents, not the Liberal leader and to scrap the long gun registry."

Vic Toews, Minister of Public Safety, "Statements By Members", April 28, June 7 and 10 2010,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"Once again, I also ask that both the Liberal and NDP leaders do the right thing and allow all of their MPs to vote freely on this issue and have the ability to truly reflect their own beliefs and that of their constituents."

Candice Hoepner, "Statements By Members", June 17 2010, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"We call upon all opposition members who voted in favour of Bill C-391 at second reading to stand up for their constituents and vote to scrap the long gun registry once and for all."

Shelly Glove, Conservative member of the Standing Committee on Public Safety and National Security,

"Statements By Members", June 9 2010, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"No more political games by members ... the constituents deserve better."

Candice Hoepner, quoted in the Globe and Mail, Ottawa Notebook Column, June 8, 2010. "Liberals aim to put a bullet in bill to scrap gun registry", <http://www.theglobeandmail.com/news/politics/ottawa-notebook/liberals-aim-to-put-a-bullet-in-bill-to-scrap-gun-registry/article1596013/>

"The passing of this motion by the opposition parties is further evidence that they are more interested in playing partisan political games with the long gun registry than doing the right thing and speaking on behalf of their hard-working, law-abiding constituents"

Ben Lobb, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 7 2010,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

Hoeppepner and the Conservatives argue NDP and Liberal MPs who vote to keep the gun registry will be defeated in the next election. "MPs will be held accountable by their constituents," Hoeppepner said.

Edmonton Journal, June 4, 2010. "Future of gun registry is in Layton's hands",
http://www.edmontonjournal.com/mobile/story.html?id=3109848&utm_source=twitterfeed&utm_medium=twitter

"This vote by the opposition parties proves that when it comes to the wasteful and ineffective long gun registry, the opposition is more interested in playing political games than doing the right thing and standing up for their constituents."

Rick Norlock, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 4 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"Will he allow his vote to be whipped by the Liberal leader, or will he listen to the voices of his constituents instead? Those 20 opposition MPs who did the right thing at second reading and voted to scrap the long gun registry will have to explain to their constituents why they allowed their party bosses to whip their vote and silence their voices. When it comes to the long gun registry, MPs can either vote to keep it or vote to scrap it. It is that simple."

Brian Jean, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 4 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"Twelve NDP and eight Liberal Members of Parliament supported my bill at second reading. The question remains – what will those MPs do when it once again comes time to vote on this in the House?" Hoeppepner continued. "Will they tow the party line and vote to keep the registry, or do the right thing, listen to their constituents, and vote to scrap the registry?"

Candice Hoeppepner, Press Release, June 3, 2010. http://candicehoeppepner.com/pg_news/details.asp?ID=159

"Mr. Speaker, constituents expect that democracy will be respected and those elected to Parliament will vote on their behalf. This is why the Liberal leader's decision to whip the vote on the long gun registry is so concerning. What will the members who voted for Bill C-391 at second reading do? Will they ignore the voices of their constituents? Will they allow their vote to be whipped by the Liberal leader? I urge all NDP and Liberal members, who voted for Bill C-391 at second reading, to listen to their constituents and not allow their votes to be determined by the Liberal leader"

Guy Lauzon, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 3 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"For the Liberal leader and the member for Ajax--Pickering the voices of constituents do not matter and the votes of Liberal MPs who supported Bill C-391 at second reading do not count."

Dave MacKenzy, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 2 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"When the Liberal leader attempts to ignore the will of his members' constituents, he proves that he is not in it for Canadians. He is only in it for himself."

Scott Armstrong, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 2 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=3>

"Would the parliamentary secretary please tell the House why NDP and Liberal MPs should listen to their constituents rather than their party whips before voting on Bill C-391?"

Scott Reid, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", May 28 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=3>

... Candice Hoeppepner, the Manitoba Conservative MP behind the bill to abolish the registry, sent out letters to individual homes in the riding of PEI MP Wayne Easter ... "Dear Friend," her letter begins. "Does your Liberal MP stand up for what you believe in?" ... It seems the Liberal Leader is whipping the vote, she explains, and the voices of the eight MPs no longer count as he is "forcing them to support the long-gun registry." So what to do? She asks the constituents to contact their Liberal MP and "encourage him to stand up against Michael Ignatieff's attempts to force him to vote against your interests."

Globe and Mail, May 12, 2010. "Tories bend rules on partisan mail to blast gun registry",
<http://www.theglobeandmail.com/news/politics/ottawa-notebook/tories-bend-rules-on-partisan-mail-to-blast-gun-registry/article1565897/>

“Last Monday, much to the dismay of some of his caucus members, Liberal leader Michael Ignatieff said he would whip the vote and prevent Liberal MPs from voting to represent their constituents' wishes when the bill returns to the House for Final Reading.... It all sends a clear message that the Ignatieff Liberals and their coalition partners ... don't care much for democracy ... MPs need to remember that at the end of the day, we came here for a reason – to represent our constituents. Liberal MPs who supported ending the long-gun registry last November need to now stand up to their leader and stand up for their constituents. Their voters deserve nothing less.”

The Mark, May 10, 2010. “Blasting Bad Democracy. The Liberals are using undemocratic tactics to save Canada's wasteful and ineffective long-gun registry” By Candice Hoepfner, MP Portage-Lisgar,
<http://www.themarknews.com/articles/1450-blasting-bad-democracy>

“The Liberal leader is whipping his members to ignore their constituents and support the wasteful long gun registry. I hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will not deceive their constituents and change their votes.”

Randy Hoback, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, May 3 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“We hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will not deceive their constituents by changing their vote just to satisfy the Liberal leader.”

Kelly Block, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 30 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“I call upon the Liberal eight as well as my colleague from Wascana to stand up for their constituents and vote for their wishes and vote to end the long gun registry.”

Tom Lukiwsk, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 30 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“Mr. Speaker, sadly, the Liberal leader is whipping his members to ignore their conscience and their constituents and to vote for the wasteful long gun registry.”

Brent Rathgeber, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 28 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>

“However, what they should do is tell their constituents that they will ignore the Liberal leader's direction and vote with their constituents.”

Blake Richards, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 22nd 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>

CITATIONS DE CANDICE HOEPNER ET SES COLLÈGUES (Mai – Août 2010)

Bien que nous croyons qu'un sujet aussi important que le contrôle des armes ne devrait PAS faire l'objet d'un vote libre, les conservateurs clament haut et fort que les députés devraient voter selon les souhaits de leurs électeurs. Or, ce principe ne semble pas s'appliquer aux conservateurs du Québec, où l'appui pour le registre est manifestement élevé... Le vote des conservateurs, serait-il secrètement « fouetté »?

Although we believe that an issue as important as gun control should NOT be subject to a free vote, the Conservatives claim that MPs should vote according the wishes of their constituents. This, however, does not seem to apply to Conservative members of parliament in Quebec, where public support for the registry remains decidedly high... Or is the Conservative vote being secretly whipped?

— Le Groupe des étudiants et diplômés de Polytechnique pour le contrôle des armes

(Nos soulignés)

Ms. Hoepner agrees the NDP is the key to her bill's survival. "The only way it won't be killed is if I get some NDP support," she said on Thursday ... Ms. Hoepner acknowledged she launched the bill as a private member as a tactical measure: It has a better chance of passing because of free votes allowed on private member's bills.

National Post, June 4, 2010,

<http://www.nationalpost.com/news/canada/controls+registry+fate/3115269/story.html>

"The vast majority of your constituents asked you to help scrap the long-gun registry ..."

Garry Breitzkreuz, email to NDP MPs, August 31, 2010, posted at

<http://www.cbc.ca/politics/insidepolitics/2010/08/cons-ndp-exchange-emails-on-long-gun-registry.html>

"I hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will put the call of their constituents above the orders of the Liberal leader." ... "We should have no more political games by members, like the member for Malpeque. The constituents deserve better." ... "We call on all opposition members who voted in favour of Bill C-391 at second reading to listen to their constituents, not the Liberal leader and to scrap the long gun registry."

Vic Toews, Minister of Public Safety, "Statements By Members", April 28, June 7 and 10 2010,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"Once again, I also ask that both the Liberal and NDP leaders do the right thing and allow all of their MPs to vote freely on this issue and have the ability to truly reflect their own beliefs and that of their constituents."

Candice Hoepner, "Statements By Members", June 17 2010, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"We call upon all opposition members who voted in favour of Bill C-391 at second reading to stand up for their constituents and vote to scrap the long gun registry once and for all."

Shelly Glove, Conservative member of the Standing Committee on Public Safety and National Security,

"Statements By Members", June 9 2010, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"No more political games by members ... the constituents deserve better."

Candice Hoepner, quoted in the Globe and Mail, Ottawa Notebook Column, June 8, 2010. "Liberals aim to put a bullet in bill to scrap gun registry", <http://www.theglobeandmail.com/news/politics/ottawa-notebook/liberals-aim-to-put-a-bullet-in-bill-to-scrap-gun-registry/article1596013/>

"The passing of this motion by the opposition parties is further evidence that they are more interested in playing partisan political games with the long gun registry than doing the right thing and speaking on behalf of their hard-working, law-abiding constituents"

Ben Lobb, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 7 2010,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

Hoepfner and the Conservatives argue NDP and Liberal MPs who vote to keep the gun registry will be defeated in the next election. "MPs will be held accountable by their constituents," Hoepfner said.

Edmonton Journal, June 4, 2010. "Future of gun registry is in Layton's hands",
http://www.edmontonjournal.com/mobile/story.html?id=3109848&utm_source=twitterfeed&utm_medium=twitter

"This vote by the opposition parties proves that when it comes to the wasteful and ineffective long gun registry, the opposition is more interested in playing political games than doing the right thing and standing up for their constituents."

Rick Norlock, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 4 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"Will he allow his vote to be whipped by the Liberal leader, or will he listen to the voices of his constituents instead? Those 20 opposition MPs who did the right thing at second reading and voted to scrap the long gun registry will have to explain to their constituents why they allowed their party bosses to whip their vote and silence their voices. When it comes to the long gun registry, MPs can either vote to keep it or vote to scrap it. It is that simple."

Brian Jean, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 4 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"Twelve NDP and eight Liberal Members of Parliament supported my bill at second reading. The question remains – what will those MPs do when it once again comes time to vote on this in the House?" Hoepfner continued. "Will they tow the party line and vote to keep the registry, or do the right thing, listen to their constituents, and vote to scrap the registry?"

Candice Hoepfner, Press Release, June 3, 2010. http://candicehoepfner.com/pg_news/details.asp?ID=159

"Mr. Speaker, constituents expect that democracy will be respected and those elected to Parliament will vote on their behalf. This is why the Liberal leader's decision to whip the vote on the long gun registry is so concerning. What will the members who voted for Bill C-391 at second reading do? Will they ignore the voices of their constituents? Will they allow their vote to be whipped by the Liberal leader? I urge all NDP and Liberal members, who voted for Bill C-391 at second reading, to listen to their constituents and not allow their votes to be determined by the Liberal leader"

Guy Lauzon, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 3 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"For the Liberal leader and the member for Ajax--Pickering the voices of constituents do not matter and the votes of Liberal MPs who supported Bill C-391 at second reading do not count."

Dave MacKenzy, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 2 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"When the Liberal leader attempts to ignore the will of his members' constituents, he proves that he is not in it for Canadians. He is only in it for himself."

Scott Armstrong, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 2 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=3>

"Would the parliamentary secretary please tell the House why NDP and Liberal MPs should listen to their constituents rather than their party whips before voting on Bill C-391?"

Scott Reid, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", May 28 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=3>

... Candice Hoepfner, the Manitoba Conservative MP behind the bill to abolish the registry, sent out letters to individual homes in the riding of PEI MP Wayne Easter ... "Dear Friend," her letter begins. "Does your Liberal MP stand up for what you believe in?" ... It seems the Liberal Leader is whipping the vote, she explains, and the voices of the eight MPs no longer count as he is "forcing them to support the long-gun registry." So what to do? She asks the constituents to contact their Liberal MP and "encourage him to stand up against Michael Ignatieff's attempts to force him to vote against your interests."

Globe and Mail, May 12, 2010. "Tories bend rules on partisan mail to blast gun registry",
<http://www.theglobeandmail.com/news/politics/ottawa-notebook/tories-bend-rules-on-partisan-mail-to-blast-gun-registry/article1565897/>

“Last Monday, much to the dismay of some of his caucus members, Liberal leader Michael Ignatieff said he would whip the vote and prevent Liberal MPs from voting to represent their constituents' wishes when the bill returns to the House for Final Reading.... It all sends a clear message that the Ignatieff Liberals and their coalition partners ... don't care much for democracy ... MPs need to remember that at the end of the day, we came here for a reason – to represent our constituents. Liberal MPs who supported ending the long-gun registry last November need to now stand up to their leader and stand up for their constituents. Their voters deserve nothing less.”

The Mark, May 10, 2010. “Blasting Bad Democracy. The Liberals are using undemocratic tactics to save Canada's wasteful and ineffective long-gun registry” By Candice Hoepfner, MP Portage-Lisgar,
<http://www.themarknews.com/articles/1450-blasting-bad-democracy>

“The Liberal leader is whipping his members to ignore their constituents and support the wasteful long gun registry. I hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will not deceive their constituents and change their votes.”

Randy Hoback, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, May 3 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“We hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will not deceive their constituents by changing their vote just to satisfy the Liberal leader.”

Kelly Block, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 30 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“I call upon the Liberal eight as well as my colleague from Wascana to stand up for their constituents and vote for their wishes and vote to end the long gun registry.”

Tom Lukiwsk, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 30 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“Mr. Speaker, sadly, the Liberal leader is whipping his members to ignore their conscience and their constituents and to vote for the wasteful long gun registry.”

Brent Rathgeber, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 28 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>

“However, what they should do is tell their constituents that they will ignore the Liberal leader's direction and vote with their constituents.”

Blake Richards, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 22nd 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>

CITATIONS DE CANDICE HOEPNER ET SES COLLÈGUES (Mai – Août 2010)

Bien que nous croyons qu'un sujet aussi important que le contrôle des armes ne devrait PAS faire l'objet d'un vote libre, les conservateurs clament haut et fort que les députés devraient voter selon les souhaits de leurs électeurs. Or, ce principe ne semble pas s'appliquer aux conservateurs du Québec, où l'appui pour le registre est manifestement élevé... Le vote des conservateurs, serait-il secrètement « fouetté »?

Although we believe that an issue as important as gun control should NOT be subject to a free vote, the Conservatives claim that MPs should vote according the wishes of their constituents. This, however, does not seem to apply to Conservative members of parliament in Quebec, where public support for the registry remains decidedly high... Or is the Conservative vote being secretly whipped?

— Le Groupe des étudiants et diplômés de Polytechnique pour le contrôle des armes

(Nos soulignés)

Ms. Hoepner agrees the NDP is the key to her bill's survival. "The only way it won't be killed is if I get some NDP support," she said on Thursday ... Ms. Hoepner acknowledged she launched the bill as a private member as a tactical measure: It has a better chance of passing because of free votes allowed on private member's bills.

National Post, June 4, 2010,

<http://www.nationalpost.com/news/canada/controls+registry+fate/3115269/story.html>

"The vast majority of your constituents asked you to help scrap the long-gun registry ..."

Garry Breitkreuz, email to NDP MPs, August 31, 2010, posted at

<http://www.cbc.ca/politics/insidepolitics/2010/08/cons-ndp-exchange-emails-on-long-gun-registry.html>

"I hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will put the call of their constituents above the orders of the Liberal leader." ... "We should have no more political games by members, like the member for Malpeque. The constituents deserve better." ... "We call on all opposition members who voted in favour of Bill C-391 at second reading to listen to their constituents, not the Liberal leader and to scrap the long gun registry."

Vic Toews, Minister of Public Safety, "Statements By Members", April 28, June 7 and 10 2010,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"Once again, I also ask that both the Liberal and NDP leaders do the right thing and allow all of their MPs to vote freely on this issue and have the ability to truly reflect their own beliefs and that of their constituents."

Candice Hoepner, "Statements By Members", June 17 2010, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"We call upon all opposition members who voted in favour of Bill C-391 at second reading to stand up for their constituents and vote to scrap the long gun registry once and for all."

Shelly Glove, Conservative member of the Standing Committee on Public Safety and National Security,

"Statements By Members", June 9 2010, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"No more political games by members ... the constituents deserve better."

Candice Hoepner, quoted in the Globe and Mail, Ottawa Notebook Column, June 8, 2010. "Liberals aim to put a bullet in bill to scrap gun registry", <http://www.theglobeandmail.com/news/politics/ottawa-notebook/liberals-aim-to-put-a-bullet-in-bill-to-scrap-gun-registry/article1596013/>

"The passing of this motion by the opposition parties is further evidence that they are more interested in playing partisan political games with the long gun registry than doing the right thing and speaking on behalf of their hard-working, law-abiding constituents"

Ben Lobb, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 7 2010,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

Hoepfner and the Conservatives argue NDP and Liberal MPs who vote to keep the gun registry will be defeated in the next election. "MPs will be held accountable by their constituents," Hoepfner said.

Edmonton Journal, June 4, 2010. "Future of gun registry is in Layton's hands",
http://www.edmontonjournal.com/mobile/story.html?id=3109848&utm_source=twitterfeed&utm_medium=twitter

"This vote by the opposition parties proves that when it comes to the wasteful and ineffective long gun registry, the opposition is more interested in playing political games than doing the right thing and standing up for their constituents."

Rick Norlock, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 4 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"Will he allow his vote to be whipped by the Liberal leader, or will he listen to the voices of his constituents instead? Those 20 opposition MPs who did the right thing at second reading and voted to scrap the long gun registry will have to explain to their constituents why they allowed their party bosses to whip their vote and silence their voices. When it comes to the long gun registry, MPs can either vote to keep it or vote to scrap it. It is that simple."

Brian Jean, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 4 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"Twelve NDP and eight Liberal Members of Parliament supported my bill at second reading. The question remains – what will those MPs do when it once again comes time to vote on this in the House?" Hoepfner continued. "Will they tow the party line and vote to keep the registry, or do the right thing, listen to their constituents, and vote to scrap the registry?"

Candice Hoepfner, Press Release, June 3, 2010. http://candicehoepfner.com/pg_news/details.asp?ID=159

"Mr. Speaker, constituents expect that democracy will be respected and those elected to Parliament will vote on their behalf. This is why the Liberal leader's decision to whip the vote on the long gun registry is so concerning. What will the members who voted for Bill C-391 at second reading do? Will they ignore the voices of their constituents? Will they allow their vote to be whipped by the Liberal leader? I urge all NDP and Liberal members, who voted for Bill C-391 at second reading, to listen to their constituents and not allow their votes to be determined by the Liberal leader"

Guy Lauzon, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 3 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"For the Liberal leader and the member for Ajax--Pickering the voices of constituents do not matter and the votes of Liberal MPs who supported Bill C-391 at second reading do not count."

Dave MacKenzy, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 2 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"When the Liberal leader attempts to ignore the will of his members' constituents, he proves that he is not in it for Canadians. He is only in it for himself."

Scott Armstrong, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 2 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=3>

"Would the parliamentary secretary please tell the House why NDP and Liberal MPs should listen to their constituents rather than their party whips before voting on Bill C-391?"

Scott Reid, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", May 28 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=3>

... Candice Hoepfner, the Manitoba Conservative MP behind the bill to abolish the registry, sent out letters to individual homes in the riding of PEI MP Wayne Easter ... "Dear Friend," her letter begins. "Does your Liberal MP stand up for what you believe in?" ... It seems the Liberal Leader is whipping the vote, she explains, and the voices of the eight MPs no longer count as he is "forcing them to support the long-gun registry." So what to do? She asks the constituents to contact their Liberal MP and "encourage him to stand up against Michael Ignatieff's attempts to force him to vote against your interests."

Globe and Mail, May 12, 2010. "Tories bend rules on partisan mail to blast gun registry",
<http://www.theglobeandmail.com/news/politics/ottawa-notebook/tories-bend-rules-on-partisan-mail-to-blast-gun-registry/article1565897/>

"Last Monday, much to the dismay of some of his caucus members, Liberal leader Michael Ignatieff said he would whip the vote and prevent Liberal MPs from voting to represent their constituents' wishes when the bill returns to the House for Final Reading.... It all sends a clear message that the Ignatieff Liberals and their coalition partners ... don't care much for democracy ... MPs need to remember that at the end of the day, we came here for a reason – to represent our constituents. Liberal MPs who supported ending the long-gun registry last November need to now stand up to their leader and stand up for their constituents. Their voters deserve nothing less."

The Mark, May 10, 2010. "Blasting Bad Democracy. The Liberals are using undemocratic tactics to save Canada's wasteful and ineffective long-gun registry" By Candice Hoepfner, MP Portage-Lisgar,
<http://www.themarknews.com/articles/1450-blasting-bad-democracy>

"The Liberal leader is whipping his members to ignore their constituents and support the wasteful long gun registry. I hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will not deceive their constituents and change their votes."

Randy Hoback, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", May 3 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

"We hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will not deceive their constituents by changing their vote just to satisfy the Liberal leader."

Kelly Block, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", April 30 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

"I call upon the Liberal eight as well as my colleague from Wascana to stand up for their constituents and vote for their wishes and vote to end the long gun registry."

Tom Lukiwsk, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", April 30 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

"Mr. Speaker, sadly, the Liberal leader is whipping his members to ignore their conscience and their constituents and to vote for the wasteful long gun registry."

Brent Rathgeber, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", April 28 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>

"However, what they should do is tell their constituents that they will ignore the Liberal leader's direction and vote with their constituents."

Blake Richards, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", April 22nd 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>

CITATIONS DE CANDICE HOEPNER ET SES COLLÈGUES (Mai – Août 2010)

Bien que nous croyons qu'un sujet aussi important que le contrôle des armes ne devrait PAS faire l'objet d'un vote libre, les conservateurs clament haut et fort que les députés devraient voter selon les souhaits de leurs électeurs. Or, ce principe ne semble pas s'appliquer aux conservateurs du Québec, où l'appui pour le registre est manifestement élevé... Le vote des conservateurs, serait-il secrètement « fouetté »?

Although we believe that an issue as important as gun control should NOT be subject to a free vote, the Conservatives claim that MPs should vote according the wishes of their constituents. This, however, does not seem to apply to Conservative members of parliament in Quebec, where public support for the registry remains decidedly high... Or is the Conservative vote being secretly whipped?

— Le Groupe des étudiants et diplômés de Polytechnique pour le contrôle des armes

(Nos soulignés)

Ms. Hoepner agrees the NDP is the key to her bill's survival. "The only way it won't be killed is if I get some NDP support," she said on Thursday ... Ms. Hoepner acknowledged she launched the bill as a private member as a tactical measure: It has a better chance of passing because of free votes allowed on private member's bills.

National Post, June 4, 2010,

<http://www.nationalpost.com/news/canada/controls+registry+fate/3115269/story.html>

"The vast majority of your constituents asked you to help scrap the long-gun registry ..."

Garry Breitreuz, email to NDP MPs, August 31, 2010, posted at

<http://www.cbc.ca/politics/insidepolitics/2010/08/cons-ndp-exchange-emails-on-long-gun-registry.html>

"I hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will put the call of their constituents above the orders of the Liberal leader." ... "We should have no more political games by members, like the member for Malpeque. The constituents deserve better." ... "We call on all opposition members who voted in favour of Bill C-391 at second reading to listen to their constituents, not the Liberal leader and to scrap the long gun registry."

Vic Toews, Minister of Public Safety, "Statements By Members", April 28, June 7 and 10 2010,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"Once again, I also ask that both the Liberal and NDP leaders do the right thing and allow all of their MPs to vote freely on this issue and have the ability to truly reflect their own beliefs and that of their constituents."

Candice Hoepner, "Statements By Members", June 17 2010, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"We call upon all opposition members who voted in favour of Bill C-391 at second reading to stand up for their constituents and vote to scrap the long gun registry once and for all."

Shelly Glove, Conservative member of the Standing Committee on Public Safety and National Security,

"Statements By Members", June 9 2010, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"No more political games by members ... the constituents deserve better."

Candice Hoepner, quoted in the Globe and Mail, Ottawa Notebook Column, June 8, 2010. "Liberals aim to put a bullet in bill to scrap gun registry", <http://www.theglobeandmail.com/news/politics/ottawa-notebook/liberals-aim-to-put-a-bullet-in-bill-to-scrap-gun-registry/article1596013/>

"The passing of this motion by the opposition parties is further evidence that they are more interested in playing partisan political games with the long gun registry than doing the right thing and speaking on behalf of their hard-working, law-abiding constituents"

Ben Lobb, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 7 2010,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

Hoepfner and the Conservatives argue NDP and Liberal MPs who vote to keep the gun registry will be defeated in the next election. "MPs will be held accountable by their constituents," Hoepfner said.

Edmonton Journal, June 4, 2010. "Future of gun registry is in Layton's hands",
http://www.edmontonjournal.com/mobile/story.html?id=3109848&utm_source=twitterfeed&utm_medium=twitter

"This vote by the opposition parties proves that when it comes to the wasteful and ineffective long gun registry, the opposition is more interested in playing political games than doing the right thing and standing up for their constituents."

Rick Norlock, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 4 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"Will he allow his vote to be whipped by the Liberal leader, or will he listen to the voices of his constituents instead? Those 20 opposition MPs who did the right thing at second reading and voted to scrap the long gun registry will have to explain to their constituents why they allowed their party bosses to whip their vote and silence their voices. When it comes to the long gun registry, MPs can either vote to keep it or vote to scrap it. It is that simple."

Brian Jean, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 4 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"Twelve NDP and eight Liberal Members of Parliament supported my bill at second reading. The question remains – what will those MPs do when it once again comes time to vote on this in the House?" Hoepfner continued. "Will they tow the party line and vote to keep the registry, or do the right thing, listen to their constituents, and vote to scrap the registry?"

Candice Hoepfner, Press Release, June 3, 2010. http://candicehoepfner.com/pg_news/details.asp?ID=159

"Mr. Speaker, constituents expect that democracy will be respected and those elected to Parliament will vote on their behalf. This is why the Liberal leader's decision to whip the vote on the long gun registry is so concerning. What will the members who voted for Bill C-391 at second reading do? Will they ignore the voices of their constituents? Will they allow their vote to be whipped by the Liberal leader? I urge all NDP and Liberal members, who voted for Bill C-391 at second reading, to listen to their constituents and not allow their votes to be determined by the Liberal leader"

Guy Lauzon, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 3 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"For the Liberal leader and the member for Ajax--Pickering the voices of constituents do not matter and the votes of Liberal MPs who supported Bill C-391 at second reading do not count."

Dave MacKenzy, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 2 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"When the Liberal leader attempts to ignore the will of his members' constituents, he proves that he is not in it for Canadians. He is only in it for himself."

Scott Armstrong, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 2 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=3>

"Would the parliamentary secretary please tell the House why NDP and Liberal MPs should listen to their constituents rather than their party whips before voting on Bill C-391?"

Scott Reid, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", May 28 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=3>

... Candice Hoepfner, the Manitoba Conservative MP behind the bill to abolish the registry, sent out letters to individual homes in the riding of PEI MP Wayne Easter ... "Dear Friend," her letter begins. "Does your Liberal MP stand up for what you believe in?" ... It seems the Liberal Leader is whipping the vote, she explains, and the voices of the eight MPs no longer count as he is "forcing them to support the long-gun registry." So what to do? She asks the constituents to contact their Liberal MP and "encourage him to stand up against Michael Ignatieff's attempts to force him to vote against your interests."

Globe and Mail, May 12, 2010. "Tories bend rules on partisan mail to blast gun registry",
<http://www.theglobeandmail.com/news/politics/ottawa-notebook/tories-bend-rules-on-partisan-mail-to-blast-gun-registry/article1565897/>

“Last Monday, much to the dismay of some of his caucus members, Liberal leader Michael Ignatieff said he would whip the vote and prevent Liberal MPs from voting to represent their constituents' wishes when the bill returns to the House for Final Reading.... It all sends a clear message that the Ignatieff Liberals and their coalition partners ... don't care much for democracy ... MPs need to remember that at the end of the day, we came here for a reason – to represent our constituents. Liberal MPs who supported ending the long-gun registry last November need to now stand up to their leader and stand up for their constituents. Their voters deserve nothing less.”

The Mark, May 10, 2010. “Blasting Bad Democracy. The Liberals are using undemocratic tactics to save Canada's wasteful and ineffective long-gun registry” By Candice Hoepfner, MP Portage-Lisgar,
<http://www.themarknews.com/articles/1450-blasting-bad-democracy>

“The Liberal leader is whipping his members to ignore their constituents and support the wasteful long gun registry. I hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will not deceive their constituents and change their votes.”

Randy Hoback, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, May 3 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“We hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will not deceive their constituents by changing their vote just to satisfy the Liberal leader.”

Kelly Block, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 30 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“I call upon the Liberal eight as well as my colleague from Wascana to stand up for their constituents and vote for their wishes and vote to end the long gun registry.”

Tom Lukiwsk, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 30 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“Mr. Speaker, sadly, the Liberal leader is whipping his members to ignore their conscience and their constituents and to vote for the wasteful long gun registry.”

Brent Rathgeber, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 28 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>

“However, what they should do is tell their constituents that they will ignore the Liberal leader's direction and vote with their constituents.”

Blake Richards, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 22nd 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>

CITATIONS DE CANDICE HOEPNER ET SES COLLÈGUES (Mai – Août 2010)

Bien que nous croyons qu'un sujet aussi important que le contrôle des armes ne devrait PAS faire l'objet d'un vote libre, les conservateurs clament haut et fort que les députés devraient voter selon les souhaits de leurs électeurs. Or, ce principe ne semble pas s'appliquer aux conservateurs du Québec, où l'appui pour le registre est manifestement élevé... Le vote des conservateurs, serait-il secrètement « fouetté »?

Although we believe that an issue as important as gun control should NOT be subject to a free vote, the Conservatives claim that MPs should vote according the wishes of their constituents. This, however, does not seem to apply to Conservative members of parliament in Quebec, where public support for the registry remains decidedly high... Or is the Conservative vote being secretly whipped?

— Le Groupe des étudiants et diplômés de Polytechnique pour le contrôle des armes

(Nos soulignés)

Ms. Hoepner agrees the NDP is the key to her bill's survival. "The only way it won't be killed is if I get some NDP support," she said on Thursday ... Ms. Hoepner acknowledged she launched the bill as a private member as a tactical measure: It has a better chance of passing because of free votes allowed on private member's bills.

National Post, June 4, 2010,

<http://www.nationalpost.com/news/canada/controls+registry+fate/3115269/story.html>

"The vast majority of your constituents asked you to help scrap the long-gun registry ..."

Garry Breitkreuz, email to NDP MPs, August 31, 2010, posted at

<http://www.cbc.ca/politics/insidepolitics/2010/08/cons-ndp-exchange-emails-on-long-gun-registry.html>

"I hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will put the call of their constituents above the orders of the Liberal leader." ... "We should have no more political games by members, like the member for Malpeque. The constituents deserve better." ... "We call on all opposition members who voted in favour of Bill C-391 at second reading to listen to their constituents, not the Liberal leader and to scrap the long gun registry."

Vic Toews, Minister of Public Safety, "Statements By Members", April 28, June 7 and 10 2010,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"Once again, I also ask that both the Liberal and NDP leaders do the right thing and allow all of their MPs to vote freely on this issue and have the ability to truly reflect their own beliefs and that of their constituents."

Candice Hoepner, "Statements By Members", June 17 2010, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"We call upon all opposition members who voted in favour of Bill C-391 at second reading to stand up for their constituents and vote to scrap the long gun registry once and for all."

Shelly Glove, Conservative member of the Standing Committee on Public Safety and National Security,

"Statements By Members", June 9 2010, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"No more political games by members ... the constituents deserve better."

Candice Hoepner, quoted in the Globe and Mail, Ottawa Notebook Column, June 8, 2010. "Liberals aim to put a bullet in bill to scrap gun registry", <http://www.theglobeandmail.com/news/politics/ottawa-notebook/liberals-aim-to-put-a-bullet-in-bill-to-scrap-gun-registry/article1596013/>

"The passing of this motion by the opposition parties is further evidence that they are more interested in playing partisan political games with the long gun registry than doing the right thing and speaking on behalf of their hard-working, law-abiding constituents"

Ben Lobb, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 7 2010,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

Hoeppepner and the Conservatives argue NDP and Liberal MPs who vote to keep the gun registry will be defeated in the next election. "MPs will be held accountable by their constituents," Hoeppepner said.

Edmonton Journal, June 4, 2010. "Future of gun registry is in Layton's hands",
http://www.edmontonjournal.com/mobile/story.html?id=3109848&utm_source=twitterfeed&utm_medium=twitter

"This vote by the opposition parties proves that when it comes to the wasteful and ineffective long gun registry, the opposition is more interested in playing political games than doing the right thing and standing up for their constituents."

Rick Norlock, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 4 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"Will he allow his vote to be whipped by the Liberal leader, or will he listen to the voices of his constituents instead? Those 20 opposition MPs who did the right thing at second reading and voted to scrap the long gun registry will have to explain to their constituents why they allowed their party bosses to whip their vote and silence their voices. When it comes to the long gun registry, MPs can either vote to keep it or vote to scrap it. It is that simple."

Brian Jean, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 4 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"Twelve NDP and eight Liberal Members of Parliament supported my bill at second reading. The question remains – what will those MPs do when it once again comes time to vote on this in the House?" Hoeppepner continued. "Will they tow the party line and vote to keep the registry, or do the right thing, listen to their constituents, and vote to scrap the registry?"

Candice Hoeppepner, Press Release, June 3, 2010. http://candicehoeppepner.com/pg_news/details.asp?ID=159

"Mr. Speaker, constituents expect that democracy will be respected and those elected to Parliament will vote on their behalf. This is why the Liberal leader's decision to whip the vote on the long gun registry is so concerning. What will the members who voted for Bill C-391 at second reading do? Will they ignore the voices of their constituents? Will they allow their vote to be whipped by the Liberal leader? I urge all NDP and Liberal members, who voted for Bill C-391 at second reading, to listen to their constituents and not allow their votes to be determined by the Liberal leader"

Guy Lauzon, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 3 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"For the Liberal leader and the member for Ajax--Pickering the voices of constituents do not matter and the votes of Liberal MPs who supported Bill C-391 at second reading do not count."

Dave MacKenzy, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 2 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"When the Liberal leader attempts to ignore the will of his members' constituents, he proves that he is not in it for Canadians. He is only in it for himself."

Scott Armstrong, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 2 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=3>

"Would the parliamentary secretary please tell the House why NDP and Liberal MPs should listen to their constituents rather than their party whips before voting on Bill C-391?"

Scott Reid, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", May 28 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=3>

... Candice Hoeppepner, the Manitoba Conservative MP behind the bill to abolish the registry, sent out letters to individual homes in the riding of PEI MP Wayne Easter ... "Dear Friend," her letter begins. "Does your Liberal MP stand up for what you believe in?" ... It seems the Liberal Leader is whipping the vote, she explains, and the voices of the eight MPs no longer count as he is "forcing them to support the long-gun registry." So what to do? She asks the constituents to contact their Liberal MP and "encourage him to stand up against Michael Ignatieff's attempts to force him to vote against your interests."

Globe and Mail, May 12, 2010. "Tories bend rules on partisan mail to blast gun registry",
<http://www.theglobeandmail.com/news/politics/ottawa-notebook/tories-bend-rules-on-partisan-mail-to-blast-gun-registry/article1565897/>

“Last Monday, much to the dismay of some of his caucus members, Liberal leader Michael Ignatieff said he would whip the vote and prevent Liberal MPs from voting to represent their constituents' wishes when the bill returns to the House for Final Reading.... It all sends a clear message that the Ignatieff Liberals and their coalition partners ... don't care much for democracy ... MPs need to remember that at the end of the day, we came here for a reason – to represent our constituents. Liberal MPs who supported ending the long-gun registry last November need to now stand up to their leader and stand up for their constituents. Their voters deserve nothing less.”

The Mark, May 10, 2010. “Blasting Bad Democracy. The Liberals are using undemocratic tactics to save Canada's wasteful and ineffective long-gun registry” By Candice Hoepfner, MP Portage-Lisgar,
<http://www.themarknews.com/articles/1450-blasting-bad-democracy>

“The Liberal leader is whipping his members to ignore their constituents and support the wasteful long gun registry. I hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will not deceive their constituents and change their votes.”

Randy Hoback, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, May 3 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“We hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will not deceive their constituents by changing their vote just to satisfy the Liberal leader.”

Kelly Block, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 30 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“I call upon the Liberal eight as well as my colleague from Wascana to stand up for their constituents and vote for their wishes and vote to end the long gun registry.”

Tom Lukiwsk, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 30 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“Mr. Speaker, sadly, the Liberal leader is whipping his members to ignore their conscience and their constituents and to vote for the wasteful long gun registry.”

Brent Rathgeber, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 28 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>

“However, what they should do is tell their constituents that they will ignore the Liberal leader's direction and vote with their constituents.”

Blake Richards, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 22nd 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>

CITATIONS DE CANDICE HOEPNER ET SES COLLÈGUES (Mai – Août 2010)

Bien que nous croyons qu'un sujet aussi important que le contrôle des armes ne devrait PAS faire l'objet d'un vote libre, les conservateurs clament haut et fort que les députés devraient voter selon les souhaits de leurs électeurs. Or, ce principe ne semble pas s'appliquer aux conservateurs du Québec, où l'appui pour le registre est manifestement élevé... Le vote des conservateurs, serait-il secrètement « fouetté »?

Although we believe that an issue as important as gun control should NOT be subject to a free vote, the Conservatives claim that MPs should vote according the wishes of their constituents. This, however, does not seem to apply to Conservative members of parliament in Quebec, where public support for the registry remains decidedly high... Or is the Conservative vote being secretly whipped?

— Le Groupe des étudiants et diplômés de Polytechnique pour le contrôle des armes

(Nos soulignés)

Ms. Hoepner agrees the NDP is the key to her bill's survival. "The only way it won't be killed is if I get some NDP support," she said on Thursday ... Ms. Hoepner acknowledged she launched the bill as a private member as a tactical measure: It has a better chance of passing because of free votes allowed on private member's bills.

National Post, June 4, 2010,

<http://www.nationalpost.com/news/canada/controls+registry+fate/3115269/story.html>

"The vast majority of your constituents asked you to help scrap the long-gun registry ..."

Garry Breitkreuz, email to NDP MPs, August 31, 2010, posted at

<http://www.cbc.ca/politics/insidepolitics/2010/08/cons-ndp-exchange-emails-on-long-gun-registry.html>

"I hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will put the call of their constituents above the orders of the Liberal leader." ... "We should have no more political games by members, like the member for Malpeque. The constituents deserve better." ... "We call on all opposition members who voted in favour of Bill C-391 at second reading to listen to their constituents, not the Liberal leader and to scrap the long gun registry."

Vic Toews, Minister of Public Safety, "Statements By Members", April 28, June 7 and 10 2010,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"Once again, I also ask that both the Liberal and NDP leaders do the right thing and allow all of their MPs to vote freely on this issue and have the ability to truly reflect their own beliefs and that of their constituents."

Candice Hoepner, "Statements By Members", June 17 2010, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"We call upon all opposition members who voted in favour of Bill C-391 at second reading to stand up for their constituents and vote to scrap the long gun registry once and for all."

Shelly Glove, Conservative member of the Standing Committee on Public Safety and National Security,

"Statements By Members", June 9 2010, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"No more political games by members ... the constituents deserve better."

Candice Hoepner, quoted in the Globe and Mail, Ottawa Notebook Column, June 8, 2010. "Liberals aim to put a bullet in bill to scrap gun registry", <http://www.theglobeandmail.com/news/politics/ottawa-notebook/liberals-aim-to-put-a-bullet-in-bill-to-scrap-gun-registry/article1596013/>

"The passing of this motion by the opposition parties is further evidence that they are more interested in playing partisan political games with the long gun registry than doing the right thing and speaking on behalf of their hard-working, law-abiding constituents"

Ben Lobb, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 7 2010,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

Hoepfner and the Conservatives argue NDP and Liberal MPs who vote to keep the gun registry will be defeated in the next election. "MPs will be held accountable by their constituents," Hoepfner said.

Edmonton Journal, June 4, 2010. "Future of gun registry is in Layton's hands",
http://www.edmontonjournal.com/mobile/story.html?id=3109848&utm_source=twitterfeed&utm_medium=twitter

"This vote by the opposition parties proves that when it comes to the wasteful and ineffective long gun registry, the opposition is more interested in playing political games than doing the right thing and standing up for their constituents."

Rick Norlock, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 4 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"Will he allow his vote to be whipped by the Liberal leader, or will he listen to the voices of his constituents instead? Those 20 opposition MPs who did the right thing at second reading and voted to scrap the long gun registry will have to explain to their constituents why they allowed their party bosses to whip their vote and silence their voices. When it comes to the long gun registry, MPs can either vote to keep it or vote to scrap it. It is that simple."

Brian Jean, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 4 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"Twelve NDP and eight Liberal Members of Parliament supported my bill at second reading. The question remains – what will those MPs do when it once again comes time to vote on this in the House?" Hoepfner continued. "Will they tow the party line and vote to keep the registry, or do the right thing, listen to their constituents, and vote to scrap the registry?"

Candice Hoepfner, Press Release, June 3, 2010. http://candicehoepfner.com/pg_news/details.asp?ID=159

"Mr. Speaker, constituents expect that democracy will be respected and those elected to Parliament will vote on their behalf. This is why the Liberal leader's decision to whip the vote on the long gun registry is so concerning. What will the members who voted for Bill C-391 at second reading do? Will they ignore the voices of their constituents? Will they allow their vote to be whipped by the Liberal leader? I urge all NDP and Liberal members, who voted for Bill C-391 at second reading, to listen to their constituents and not allow their votes to be determined by the Liberal leader"

Guy Lauzon, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 3 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"For the Liberal leader and the member for Ajax--Pickering the voices of constituents do not matter and the votes of Liberal MPs who supported Bill C-391 at second reading do not count."

Dave MacKenzy, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 2 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"When the Liberal leader attempts to ignore the will of his members' constituents, he proves that he is not in it for Canadians. He is only in it for himself."

Scott Armstrong, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 2 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=3>

"Would the parliamentary secretary please tell the House why NDP and Liberal MPs should listen to their constituents rather than their party whips before voting on Bill C-391?"

Scott Reid, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", May 28 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=3>

... Candice Hoepfner, the Manitoba Conservative MP behind the bill to abolish the registry, sent out letters to individual homes in the riding of PEI MP Wayne Easter ... "Dear Friend," her letter begins. "Does your Liberal MP stand up for what you believe in?" ... It seems the Liberal Leader is whipping the vote, she explains, and the voices of the eight MPs no longer count as he is "forcing them to support the long-gun registry." So what to do? She asks the constituents to contact their Liberal MP and "encourage him to stand up against Michael Ignatieff's attempts to force him to vote against your interests."

Globe and Mail, May 12, 2010. "Tories bend rules on partisan mail to blast gun registry",
<http://www.theglobeandmail.com/news/politics/ottawa-notebook/tories-bend-rules-on-partisan-mail-to-blast-gun-registry/article1565897/>

“Last Monday, much to the dismay of some of his caucus members, Liberal leader Michael Ignatieff said he would whip the vote and prevent Liberal MPs from voting to represent their constituents' wishes when the bill returns to the House for Final Reading.... It all sends a clear message that the Ignatieff Liberals and their coalition partners ... don't care much for democracy ... MPs need to remember that at the end of the day, we came here for a reason – to represent our constituents. Liberal MPs who supported ending the long-gun registry last November need to now stand up to their leader and stand up for their constituents. Their voters deserve nothing less.”

The Mark, May 10, 2010. “Blasting Bad Democracy. The Liberals are using undemocratic tactics to save Canada's wasteful and ineffective long-gun registry” By Candice Hoepfner, MP Portage-Lisgar,
<http://www.themarknews.com/articles/1450-blasting-bad-democracy>

“The Liberal leader is whipping his members to ignore their constituents and support the wasteful long gun registry. I hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will not deceive their constituents and change their votes.”

Randy Hoback, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, May 3 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“We hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will not deceive their constituents by changing their vote just to satisfy the Liberal leader.”

Kelly Block, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 30 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“I call upon the Liberal eight as well as my colleague from Wascana to stand up for their constituents and vote for their wishes and vote to end the long gun registry.”

Tom Lukiwsk, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 30 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“Mr. Speaker, sadly, the Liberal leader is whipping his members to ignore their conscience and their constituents and to vote for the wasteful long gun registry.”

Brent Rathgeber, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 28 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>

“However, what they should do is tell their constituents that they will ignore the Liberal leader's direction and vote with their constituents.”

Blake Richards, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 22nd 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>

CITATIONS DE CANDICE HOEPNER ET SES COLLÈGUES (Mai – Août 2010)

Bien que nous croyons qu'un sujet aussi important que le contrôle des armes ne devrait PAS faire l'objet d'un vote libre, les conservateurs clament haut et fort que les députés devraient voter selon les souhaits de leurs électeurs. Or, ce principe ne semble pas s'appliquer aux conservateurs du Québec, où l'appui pour le registre est manifestement élevé... Le vote des conservateurs, serait-il secrètement « fouetté »?

Although we believe that an issue as important as gun control should NOT be subject to a free vote, the Conservatives claim that MPs should vote according the wishes of their constituents. This, however, does not seem to apply to Conservative members of parliament in Quebec, where public support for the registry remains decidedly high... Or is the Conservative vote being secretly whipped?

— Le Groupe des étudiants et diplômés de Polytechnique pour le contrôle des armes

(Nos soulignés)

Ms. Hoepner agrees the NDP is the key to her bill's survival. "The only way it won't be killed is if I get some NDP support," she said on Thursday ... Ms. Hoepner acknowledged she launched the bill as a private member as a tactical measure: It has a better chance of passing because of free votes allowed on private member's bills.

National Post, June 4, 2010,

<http://www.nationalpost.com/news/canada/controls+registry+fate/3115269/story.html>

"The vast majority of your constituents asked you to help scrap the long-gun registry ..."

Garry Breitkreuz, email to NDP MPs, August 31, 2010, posted at

<http://www.cbc.ca/politics/insidepolitics/2010/08/cons-ndp-exchange-emails-on-long-gun-registry.html>

"I hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will put the call of their constituents above the orders of the Liberal leader." ... "We should have no more political games by members, like the member for Malpeque. The constituents deserve better." ... "We call on all opposition members who voted in favour of Bill C-391 at second reading to listen to their constituents, not the Liberal leader and to scrap the long gun registry."

Vic Toews, Minister of Public Safety, "Statements By Members", April 28, June 7 and 10 2010,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"Once again, I also ask that both the Liberal and NDP leaders do the right thing and allow all of their MPs to vote freely on this issue and have the ability to truly reflect their own beliefs and that of their constituents."

Candice Hoepner, "Statements By Members", June 17 2010, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"We call upon all opposition members who voted in favour of Bill C-391 at second reading to stand up for their constituents and vote to scrap the long gun registry once and for all."

Shelly Glove, Conservative member of the Standing Committee on Public Safety and National Security,

"Statements By Members", June 9 2010, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"No more political games by members ... the constituents deserve better."

Candice Hoepner, quoted in the Globe and Mail, Ottawa Notebook Column, June 8, 2010. "Liberals aim to put a bullet in bill to scrap gun registry", <http://www.theglobeandmail.com/news/politics/ottawa-notebook/liberals-aim-to-put-a-bullet-in-bill-to-scrap-gun-registry/article1596013/>

"The passing of this motion by the opposition parties is further evidence that they are more interested in playing partisan political games with the long gun registry than doing the right thing and speaking on behalf of their hard-working, law-abiding constituents"

Ben Lobb, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 7 2010,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

Hoepfner and the Conservatives argue NDP and Liberal MPs who vote to keep the gun registry will be defeated in the next election. "MPs will be held accountable by their constituents," Hoepfner said.

Edmonton Journal, June 4, 2010. "Future of gun registry is in Layton's hands",
http://www.edmontonjournal.com/mobile/story.html?id=3109848&utm_source=twitterfeed&utm_medium=twitter

"This vote by the opposition parties proves that when it comes to the wasteful and ineffective long gun registry, the opposition is more interested in playing political games than doing the right thing and standing up for their constituents."

Rick Norlock, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 4 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"Will he allow his vote to be whipped by the Liberal leader, or will he listen to the voices of his constituents instead? Those 20 opposition MPs who did the right thing at second reading and voted to scrap the long gun registry will have to explain to their constituents why they allowed their party bosses to whip their vote and silence their voices. When it comes to the long gun registry, MPs can either vote to keep it or vote to scrap it. It is that simple."

Brian Jean, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 4 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"Twelve NDP and eight Liberal Members of Parliament supported my bill at second reading. The question remains – what will those MPs do when it once again comes time to vote on this in the House?" Hoepfner continued. "Will they tow the party line and vote to keep the registry, or do the right thing, listen to their constituents, and vote to scrap the registry?"

Candice Hoepfner, Press Release, June 3, 2010. http://candicehoepfner.com/pg_news/details.asp?ID=159

"Mr. Speaker, constituents expect that democracy will be respected and those elected to Parliament will vote on their behalf. This is why the Liberal leader's decision to whip the vote on the long gun registry is so concerning. What will the members who voted for Bill C-391 at second reading do? Will they ignore the voices of their constituents? Will they allow their vote to be whipped by the Liberal leader? I urge all NDP and Liberal members, who voted for Bill C-391 at second reading, to listen to their constituents and not allow their votes to be determined by the Liberal leader"

Guy Lauzon, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 3 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"For the Liberal leader and the member for Ajax--Pickering the voices of constituents do not matter and the votes of Liberal MPs who supported Bill C-391 at second reading do not count."

Dave MacKenzy, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 2 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"When the Liberal leader attempts to ignore the will of his members' constituents, he proves that he is not in it for Canadians. He is only in it for himself."

Scott Armstrong, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 2 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=3>

"Would the parliamentary secretary please tell the House why NDP and Liberal MPs should listen to their constituents rather than their party whips before voting on Bill C-391?"

Scott Reid, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", May 28 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=3>

... Candice Hoepfner, the Manitoba Conservative MP behind the bill to abolish the registry, sent out letters to individual homes in the riding of PEI MP Wayne Easter ... "Dear Friend," her letter begins. "Does your Liberal MP stand up for what you believe in?" ... It seems the Liberal Leader is whipping the vote, she explains, and the voices of the eight MPs no longer count as he is "forcing them to support the long-gun registry." So what to do? She asks the constituents to contact their Liberal MP and "encourage him to stand up against Michael Ignatieff's attempts to force him to vote against your interests."

Globe and Mail, May 12, 2010. "Tories bend rules on partisan mail to blast gun registry",
<http://www.theglobeandmail.com/news/politics/ottawa-notebook/tories-bend-rules-on-partisan-mail-to-blast-gun-registry/article1565897/>

“Last Monday, much to the dismay of some of his caucus members, Liberal leader Michael Ignatieff said he would whip the vote and prevent Liberal MPs from voting to represent their constituents' wishes when the bill returns to the House for Final Reading.... It all sends a clear message that the Ignatieff Liberals and their coalition partners ... don't care much for democracy ... MPs need to remember that at the end of the day, we came here for a reason – to represent our constituents. Liberal MPs who supported ending the long-gun registry last November need to now stand up to their leader and stand up for their constituents. Their voters deserve nothing less.”

The Mark, May 10, 2010. “Blasting Bad Democracy. The Liberals are using undemocratic tactics to save Canada's wasteful and ineffective long-gun registry” By Candice Hoepfner, MP Portage-Lisgar,
<http://www.themarknews.com/articles/1450-blasting-bad-democracy>

“The Liberal leader is whipping his members to ignore their constituents and support the wasteful long gun registry. I hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will not deceive their constituents and change their votes.”

Randy Hoback, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, May 3 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“We hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will not deceive their constituents by changing their vote just to satisfy the Liberal leader.”

Kelly Block, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 30 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“I call upon the Liberal eight as well as my colleague from Wascana to stand up for their constituents and vote for their wishes and vote to end the long gun registry.”

Tom Lukiwsk, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 30 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“Mr. Speaker, sadly, the Liberal leader is whipping his members to ignore their conscience and their constituents and to vote for the wasteful long gun registry.”

Brent Rathgeber, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 28 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>

“However, what they should do is tell their constituents that they will ignore the Liberal leader's direction and vote with their constituents.”

Blake Richards, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 22nd 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>

CITATIONS DE CANDICE HOEPNER ET SES COLLÈGUES (Mai – Août 2010)

Bien que nous croyons qu'un sujet aussi important que le contrôle des armes ne devrait PAS faire l'objet d'un vote libre, les conservateurs clament haut et fort que les députés devraient voter selon les souhaits de leurs électeurs. Or, ce principe ne semble pas s'appliquer aux conservateurs du Québec, où l'appui pour le registre est manifestement élevé... Le vote des conservateurs, serait-il secrètement « fouetté »?

Although we believe that an issue as important as gun control should NOT be subject to a free vote, the Conservatives claim that MPs should vote according the wishes of their constituents. This, however, does not seem to apply to Conservative members of parliament in Quebec, where public support for the registry remains decidedly high... Or is the Conservative vote being secretly whipped?

— Le Groupe des étudiants et diplômés de Polytechnique pour le contrôle des armes

(Nos soulignés)

Ms. Hoepner agrees the NDP is the key to her bill's survival. "The only way it won't be killed is if I get some NDP support," she said on Thursday ... Ms. Hoepner acknowledged she launched the bill as a private member as a tactical measure: It has a better chance of passing because of free votes allowed on private member's bills.

National Post, June 4, 2010,

<http://www.nationalpost.com/news/canada/controls+registry+fate/3115269/story.html>

"The vast majority of your constituents asked you to help scrap the long-gun registry ..."

Garry Breitkreuz, email to NDP MPs, August 31, 2010, posted at

<http://www.cbc.ca/politics/insidepolitics/2010/08/cons-ndp-exchange-emails-on-long-gun-registry.html>

"I hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will put the call of their constituents above the orders of the Liberal leader." ... "We should have no more political games by members, like the member for Malpeque. The constituents deserve better." ... "We call on all opposition members who voted in favour of Bill C-391 at second reading to listen to their constituents, not the Liberal leader and to scrap the long gun registry."

Vic Toews, Minister of Public Safety, "Statements By Members", April 28, June 7 and 10 2010,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"Once again, I also ask that both the Liberal and NDP leaders do the right thing and allow all of their MPs to vote freely on this issue and have the ability to truly reflect their own beliefs and that of their constituents."

Candice Hoepner, "Statements By Members", June 17 2010, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"We call upon all opposition members who voted in favour of Bill C-391 at second reading to stand up for their constituents and vote to scrap the long gun registry once and for all."

Shelly Glove, Conservative member of the Standing Committee on Public Safety and National Security,

"Statements By Members", June 9 2010, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"No more political games by members ... the constituents deserve better."

Candice Hoepner, quoted in the Globe and Mail, Ottawa Notebook Column, June 8, 2010. "Liberals aim to put a bullet in bill to scrap gun registry", <http://www.theglobeandmail.com/news/politics/ottawa-notebook/liberals-aim-to-put-a-bullet-in-bill-to-scrap-gun-registry/article1596013/>

"The passing of this motion by the opposition parties is further evidence that they are more interested in playing partisan political games with the long gun registry than doing the right thing and speaking on behalf of their hard-working, law-abiding constituents"

Ben Lobb, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 7 2010,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

Hoepfner and the Conservatives argue NDP and Liberal MPs who vote to keep the gun registry will be defeated in the next election. "MPs will be held accountable by their constituents," Hoepfner said.

Edmonton Journal, June 4, 2010. "Future of gun registry is in Layton's hands",
http://www.edmontonjournal.com/mobile/story.html?id=3109848&utm_source=twitterfeed&utm_medium=twitter

"This vote by the opposition parties proves that when it comes to the wasteful and ineffective long gun registry, the opposition is more interested in playing political games than doing the right thing and standing up for their constituents."

Rick Norlock, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 4 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"Will he allow his vote to be whipped by the Liberal leader, or will he listen to the voices of his constituents instead? Those 20 opposition MPs who did the right thing at second reading and voted to scrap the long gun registry will have to explain to their constituents why they allowed their party bosses to whip their vote and silence their voices. When it comes to the long gun registry, MPs can either vote to keep it or vote to scrap it. It is that simple."

Brian Jean, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 4 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"Twelve NDP and eight Liberal Members of Parliament supported my bill at second reading. The question remains – what will those MPs do when it once again comes time to vote on this in the House?" Hoepfner continued. "Will they tow the party line and vote to keep the registry, or do the right thing, listen to their constituents, and vote to scrap the registry?"

Candice Hoepfner, Press Release, June 3, 2010. http://candicehoepfner.com/pg_news/details.asp?ID=159

"Mr. Speaker, constituents expect that democracy will be respected and those elected to Parliament will vote on their behalf. This is why the Liberal leader's decision to whip the vote on the long gun registry is so concerning. What will the members who voted for Bill C-391 at second reading do? Will they ignore the voices of their constituents? Will they allow their vote to be whipped by the Liberal leader? I urge all NDP and Liberal members, who voted for Bill C-391 at second reading, to listen to their constituents and not allow their votes to be determined by the Liberal leader"

Guy Lauzon, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 3 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"For the Liberal leader and the member for Ajax--Pickering the voices of constituents do not matter and the votes of Liberal MPs who supported Bill C-391 at second reading do not count."

Dave MacKenzy, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 2 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"When the Liberal leader attempts to ignore the will of his members' constituents, he proves that he is not in it for Canadians. He is only in it for himself."

Scott Armstrong, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 2 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=3>

"Would the parliamentary secretary please tell the House why NDP and Liberal MPs should listen to their constituents rather than their party whips before voting on Bill C-391?"

Scott Reid, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", May 28 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=3>

... Candice Hoepfner, the Manitoba Conservative MP behind the bill to abolish the registry, sent out letters to individual homes in the riding of PEI MP Wayne Easter ... "Dear Friend," her letter begins. "Does your Liberal MP stand up for what you believe in?" ... It seems the Liberal Leader is whipping the vote, she explains, and the voices of the eight MPs no longer count as he is "forcing them to support the long-gun registry." So what to do? She asks the constituents to contact their Liberal MP and "encourage him to stand up against Michael Ignatieff's attempts to force him to vote against your interests."

Globe and Mail, May 12, 2010. "Tories bend rules on partisan mail to blast gun registry",
<http://www.theglobeandmail.com/news/politics/ottawa-notebook/tories-bend-rules-on-partisan-mail-to-blast-gun-registry/article1565897/>

“Last Monday, much to the dismay of some of his caucus members, Liberal leader Michael Ignatieff said he would whip the vote and prevent Liberal MPs from voting to represent their constituents' wishes when the bill returns to the House for Final Reading.... It all sends a clear message that the Ignatieff Liberals and their coalition partners ... don't care much for democracy ... MPs need to remember that at the end of the day, we came here for a reason – to represent our constituents. Liberal MPs who supported ending the long-gun registry last November need to now stand up to their leader and stand up for their constituents. Their voters deserve nothing less.”

The Mark, May 10, 2010. “Blasting Bad Democracy. The Liberals are using undemocratic tactics to save Canada's wasteful and ineffective long-gun registry” By Candice Hoepfner, MP Portage-Lisgar,
<http://www.themarknews.com/articles/1450-blasting-bad-democracy>

“The Liberal leader is whipping his members to ignore their constituents and support the wasteful long gun registry. I hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will not deceive their constituents and change their votes.”

Randy Hoback, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, May 3 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“We hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will not deceive their constituents by changing their vote just to satisfy the Liberal leader.”

Kelly Block, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 30 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“I call upon the Liberal eight as well as my colleague from Wascana to stand up for their constituents and vote for their wishes and vote to end the long gun registry.”

Tom Lukiwsk, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 30 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“Mr. Speaker, sadly, the Liberal leader is whipping his members to ignore their conscience and their constituents and to vote for the wasteful long gun registry.”

Brent Rathgeber, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 28 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>

“However, what they should do is tell their constituents that they will ignore the Liberal leader's direction and vote with their constituents.”

Blake Richards, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 22nd 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>

CITATIONS DE CANDICE HOEPNER ET SES COLLÈGUES (Mai – Août 2010)

Bien que nous croyons qu'un sujet aussi important que le contrôle des armes ne devrait PAS faire l'objet d'un vote libre, les conservateurs clament haut et fort que les députés devraient voter selon les souhaits de leurs électeurs. Or, ce principe ne semble pas s'appliquer aux conservateurs du Québec, où l'appui pour le registre est manifestement élevé... Le vote des conservateurs, serait-il secrètement « fouetté »?

Although we believe that an issue as important as gun control should NOT be subject to a free vote, the Conservatives claim that MPs should vote according the wishes of their constituents. This, however, does not seem to apply to Conservative members of parliament in Quebec, where public support for the registry remains decidedly high... Or is the Conservative vote being secretly whipped?

— Le Groupe des étudiants et diplômés de Polytechnique pour le contrôle des armes

(Nos soulignés)

Ms. Hoepner agrees the NDP is the key to her bill's survival. "The only way it won't be killed is if I get some NDP support," she said on Thursday ... Ms. Hoepner acknowledged she launched the bill as a private member as a tactical measure: It has a better chance of passing because of free votes allowed on private member's bills.

National Post, June 4, 2010,

<http://www.nationalpost.com/news/canada/controls+registry+fate/3115269/story.html>

"The vast majority of your constituents asked you to help scrap the long-gun registry ..."

Garry Breitzkreuz, email to NDP MPs, August 31, 2010, posted at

<http://www.cbc.ca/politics/insidepolitics/2010/08/cons-ndp-exchange-emails-on-long-gun-registry.html>

"I hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will put the call of their constituents above the orders of the Liberal leader." ... "We should have no more political games by members, like the member for Malpeque. The constituents deserve better." ... "We call on all opposition members who voted in favour of Bill C-391 at second reading to listen to their constituents, not the Liberal leader and to scrap the long gun registry."

Vic Toews, Minister of Public Safety, "Statements By Members", April 28, June 7 and 10 2010,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"Once again, I also ask that both the Liberal and NDP leaders do the right thing and allow all of their MPs to vote freely on this issue and have the ability to truly reflect their own beliefs and that of their constituents."

Candice Hoepner, "Statements By Members", June 17 2010, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"We call upon all opposition members who voted in favour of Bill C-391 at second reading to stand up for their constituents and vote to scrap the long gun registry once and for all."

Shelly Glove, Conservative member of the Standing Committee on Public Safety and National Security,

"Statements By Members", June 9 2010, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"No more political games by members ... the constituents deserve better."

Candice Hoepner, quoted in the Globe and Mail, Ottawa Notebook Column, June 8, 2010. "Liberals aim to put a bullet in bill to scrap gun registry", <http://www.theglobeandmail.com/news/politics/ottawa-notebook/liberals-aim-to-put-a-bullet-in-bill-to-scrap-gun-registry/article1596013/>

"The passing of this motion by the opposition parties is further evidence that they are more interested in playing partisan political games with the long gun registry than doing the right thing and speaking on behalf of their hard-working, law-abiding constituents"

Ben Lobb, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 7 2010,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

Hoeppepner and the Conservatives argue NDP and Liberal MPs who vote to keep the gun registry will be defeated in the next election. "MPs will be held accountable by their constituents," Hoeppepner said.

Edmonton Journal, June 4, 2010. "Future of gun registry is in Layton's hands",
http://www.edmontonjournal.com/mobile/story.html?id=3109848&utm_source=twitterfeed&utm_medium=twitter

"This vote by the opposition parties proves that when it comes to the wasteful and ineffective long gun registry, the opposition is more interested in playing political games than doing the right thing and standing up for their constituents."

Rick Norlock, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 4 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"Will he allow his vote to be whipped by the Liberal leader, or will he listen to the voices of his constituents instead? Those 20 opposition MPs who did the right thing at second reading and voted to scrap the long gun registry will have to explain to their constituents why they allowed their party bosses to whip their vote and silence their voices. When it comes to the long gun registry, MPs can either vote to keep it or vote to scrap it. It is that simple."

Brian Jean, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 4 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"Twelve NDP and eight Liberal Members of Parliament supported my bill at second reading. The question remains – what will those MPs do when it once again comes time to vote on this in the House?" Hoeppepner continued. "Will they tow the party line and vote to keep the registry, or do the right thing, listen to their constituents, and vote to scrap the registry?"

Candice Hoeppepner, Press Release, June 3, 2010. http://candicehoeppepner.com/pg_news/details.asp?ID=159

"Mr. Speaker, constituents expect that democracy will be respected and those elected to Parliament will vote on their behalf. This is why the Liberal leader's decision to whip the vote on the long gun registry is so concerning. What will the members who voted for Bill C-391 at second reading do? Will they ignore the voices of their constituents? Will they allow their vote to be whipped by the Liberal leader? I urge all NDP and Liberal members, who voted for Bill C-391 at second reading, to listen to their constituents and not allow their votes to be determined by the Liberal leader"

Guy Lauzon, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 3 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"For the Liberal leader and the member for Ajax--Pickering the voices of constituents do not matter and the votes of Liberal MPs who supported Bill C-391 at second reading do not count."

Dave MacKenzy, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 2 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"When the Liberal leader attempts to ignore the will of his members' constituents, he proves that he is not in it for Canadians. He is only in it for himself."

Scott Armstrong, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 2 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=3>

"Would the parliamentary secretary please tell the House why NDP and Liberal MPs should listen to their constituents rather than their party whips before voting on Bill C-391?"

Scott Reid, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", May 28 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=3>

... Candice Hoeppepner, the Manitoba Conservative MP behind the bill to abolish the registry, sent out letters to individual homes in the riding of PEI MP Wayne Easter ... "Dear Friend," her letter begins. "Does your Liberal MP stand up for what you believe in?" ... It seems the Liberal Leader is whipping the vote, she explains, and the voices of the eight MPs no longer count as he is "forcing them to support the long-gun registry." So what to do? She asks the constituents to contact their Liberal MP and "encourage him to stand up against Michael Ignatieff's attempts to force him to vote against your interests."

Globe and Mail, May 12, 2010. "Tories bend rules on partisan mail to blast gun registry",
<http://www.theglobeandmail.com/news/politics/ottawa-notebook/tories-bend-rules-on-partisan-mail-to-blast-gun-registry/article1565897/>

“Last Monday, much to the dismay of some of his caucus members, Liberal leader Michael Ignatieff said he would whip the vote and prevent Liberal MPs from voting to represent their constituents' wishes when the bill returns to the House for Final Reading.... It all sends a clear message that the Ignatieff Liberals and their coalition partners ... don't care much for democracy ... MPs need to remember that at the end of the day, we came here for a reason – to represent our constituents. Liberal MPs who supported ending the long-gun registry last November need to now stand up to their leader and stand up for their constituents. Their voters deserve nothing less.”

The Mark, May 10, 2010. “Blasting Bad Democracy. The Liberals are using undemocratic tactics to save Canada's wasteful and ineffective long-gun registry” By Candice Hoepfner, MP Portage-Lisgar,
<http://www.themarknews.com/articles/1450-blasting-bad-democracy>

“The Liberal leader is whipping his members to ignore their constituents and support the wasteful long gun registry. I hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will not deceive their constituents and change their votes.”

Randy Hoback, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, May 3 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“We hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will not deceive their constituents by changing their vote just to satisfy the Liberal leader.”

Kelly Block, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 30 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“I call upon the Liberal eight as well as my colleague from Wascana to stand up for their constituents and vote for their wishes and vote to end the long gun registry.”

Tom Lukiwsk, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 30 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“Mr. Speaker, sadly, the Liberal leader is whipping his members to ignore their conscience and their constituents and to vote for the wasteful long gun registry.”

Brent Rathgeber, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 28 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>

“However, what they should do is tell their constituents that they will ignore the Liberal leader's direction and vote with their constituents.”

Blake Richards, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 22nd 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>

CITATIONS DE CANDICE HOEPNER ET SES COLLÈGUES (Mai – Août 2010)

Bien que nous croyons qu'un sujet aussi important que le contrôle des armes ne devrait PAS faire l'objet d'un vote libre, les conservateurs clament haut et fort que les députés devraient voter selon les souhaits de leurs électeurs. Or, ce principe ne semble pas s'appliquer aux conservateurs du Québec, où l'appui pour le registre est manifestement élevé... Le vote des conservateurs, serait-il secrètement « fouetté »?

Although we believe that an issue as important as gun control should NOT be subject to a free vote, the Conservatives claim that MPs should vote according the wishes of their constituents. This, however, does not seem to apply to Conservative members of parliament in Quebec, where public support for the registry remains decidedly high... Or is the Conservative vote being secretly whipped?

— Le Groupe des étudiants et diplômés de Polytechnique pour le contrôle des armes

(Nos soulignés)

Ms. Hoepner agrees the NDP is the key to her bill's survival. "The only way it won't be killed is if I get some NDP support," she said on Thursday ... Ms. Hoepner acknowledged she launched the bill as a private member as a tactical measure: It has a better chance of passing because of free votes allowed on private member's bills.

National Post, June 4, 2010,

<http://www.nationalpost.com/news/canada/controls+registry+fate/3115269/story.html>

"The vast majority of your constituents asked you to help scrap the long-gun registry ..."

Garry Breitkreuz, email to NDP MPs, August 31, 2010, posted at

<http://www.cbc.ca/politics/insidepolitics/2010/08/cons-ndp-exchange-emails-on-long-gun-registry.html>

"I hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will put the call of their constituents above the orders of the Liberal leader." ... "We should have no more political games by members, like the member for Malpeque. The constituents deserve better." ... "We call on all opposition members who voted in favour of Bill C-391 at second reading to listen to their constituents, not the Liberal leader and to scrap the long gun registry."

Vic Toews, Minister of Public Safety, "Statements By Members", April 28, June 7 and 10 2010,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"Once again, I also ask that both the Liberal and NDP leaders do the right thing and allow all of their MPs to vote freely on this issue and have the ability to truly reflect their own beliefs and that of their constituents."

Candice Hoepner, "Statements By Members", June 17 2010, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"We call upon all opposition members who voted in favour of Bill C-391 at second reading to stand up for their constituents and vote to scrap the long gun registry once and for all."

Shelly Glove, Conservative member of the Standing Committee on Public Safety and National Security,

"Statements By Members", June 9 2010, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"No more political games by members ... the constituents deserve better."

Candice Hoepner, quoted in the Globe and Mail, Ottawa Notebook Column, June 8, 2010. "Liberals aim to put a bullet in bill to scrap gun registry", <http://www.theglobeandmail.com/news/politics/ottawa-notebook/liberals-aim-to-put-a-bullet-in-bill-to-scrap-gun-registry/article1596013/>

"The passing of this motion by the opposition parties is further evidence that they are more interested in playing partisan political games with the long gun registry than doing the right thing and speaking on behalf of their hard-working, law-abiding constituents"

Ben Lobb, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 7 2010,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

Hoepfner and the Conservatives argue NDP and Liberal MPs who vote to keep the gun registry will be defeated in the next election. "MPs will be held accountable by their constituents," Hoepfner said.

Edmonton Journal, June 4, 2010. "Future of gun registry is in Layton's hands",
http://www.edmontonjournal.com/mobile/story.html?id=3109848&utm_source=twitterfeed&utm_medium=twitter

"This vote by the opposition parties proves that when it comes to the wasteful and ineffective long gun registry, the opposition is more interested in playing political games than doing the right thing and standing up for their constituents."

Rick Norlock, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 4 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"Will he allow his vote to be whipped by the Liberal leader, or will he listen to the voices of his constituents instead? Those 20 opposition MPs who did the right thing at second reading and voted to scrap the long gun registry will have to explain to their constituents why they allowed their party bosses to whip their vote and silence their voices. When it comes to the long gun registry, MPs can either vote to keep it or vote to scrap it. It is that simple."

Brian Jean, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 4 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"Twelve NDP and eight Liberal Members of Parliament supported my bill at second reading. The question remains – what will those MPs do when it once again comes time to vote on this in the House?" Hoepfner continued. "Will they tow the party line and vote to keep the registry, or do the right thing, listen to their constituents, and vote to scrap the registry?"

Candice Hoepfner, Press Release, June 3, 2010. http://candicehoepfner.com/pg_news/details.asp?ID=159

"Mr. Speaker, constituents expect that democracy will be respected and those elected to Parliament will vote on their behalf. This is why the Liberal leader's decision to whip the vote on the long gun registry is so concerning. What will the members who voted for Bill C-391 at second reading do? Will they ignore the voices of their constituents? Will they allow their vote to be whipped by the Liberal leader? I urge all NDP and Liberal members, who voted for Bill C-391 at second reading, to listen to their constituents and not allow their votes to be determined by the Liberal leader"

Guy Lauzon, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 3 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"For the Liberal leader and the member for Ajax--Pickering the voices of constituents do not matter and the votes of Liberal MPs who supported Bill C-391 at second reading do not count."

Dave MacKenzy, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 2 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"When the Liberal leader attempts to ignore the will of his members' constituents, he proves that he is not in it for Canadians. He is only in it for himself."

Scott Armstrong, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 2 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=3>

"Would the parliamentary secretary please tell the House why NDP and Liberal MPs should listen to their constituents rather than their party whips before voting on Bill C-391?"

Scott Reid, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", May 28 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=3>

... Candice Hoepfner, the Manitoba Conservative MP behind the bill to abolish the registry, sent out letters to individual homes in the riding of PEI MP Wayne Easter ... "Dear Friend," her letter begins. "Does your Liberal MP stand up for what you believe in?" ... It seems the Liberal Leader is whipping the vote, she explains, and the voices of the eight MPs no longer count as he is "forcing them to support the long-gun registry." So what to do? She asks the constituents to contact their Liberal MP and "encourage him to stand up against Michael Ignatieff's attempts to force him to vote against your interests."

Globe and Mail, May 12, 2010. "Tories bend rules on partisan mail to blast gun registry",
<http://www.theglobeandmail.com/news/politics/ottawa-notebook/tories-bend-rules-on-partisan-mail-to-blast-gun-registry/article1565897/>

“Last Monday, much to the dismay of some of his caucus members, Liberal leader Michael Ignatieff said he would whip the vote and prevent Liberal MPs from voting to represent their constituents' wishes when the bill returns to the House for Final Reading.... It all sends a clear message that the Ignatieff Liberals and their coalition partners ... don't care much for democracy ... MPs need to remember that at the end of the day, we came here for a reason – to represent our constituents. Liberal MPs who supported ending the long-gun registry last November need to now stand up to their leader and stand up for their constituents. Their voters deserve nothing less.”

The Mark, May 10, 2010. “Blasting Bad Democracy. The Liberals are using undemocratic tactics to save Canada's wasteful and ineffective long-gun registry” By Candice Hoepfner, MP Portage-Lisgar,
<http://www.themarknews.com/articles/1450-blasting-bad-democracy>

“The Liberal leader is whipping his members to ignore their constituents and support the wasteful long gun registry. I hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will not deceive their constituents and change their votes.”

Randy Hoback, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, May 3 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“We hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will not deceive their constituents by changing their vote just to satisfy the Liberal leader.”

Kelly Block, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 30 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“I call upon the Liberal eight as well as my colleague from Wascana to stand up for their constituents and vote for their wishes and vote to end the long gun registry.”

Tom Lukiwsk, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 30 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“Mr. Speaker, sadly, the Liberal leader is whipping his members to ignore their conscience and their constituents and to vote for the wasteful long gun registry.”

Brent Rathgeber, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 28 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>

“However, what they should do is tell their constituents that they will ignore the Liberal leader's direction and vote with their constituents.”

Blake Richards, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 22nd 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>

CITATIONS DE CANDICE HOEPNER ET SES COLLÈGUES (Mai – Août 2010)

Bien que nous croyons qu'un sujet aussi important que le contrôle des armes ne devrait PAS faire l'objet d'un vote libre, les conservateurs clament haut et fort que les députés devraient voter selon les souhaits de leurs électeurs. Or, ce principe ne semble pas s'appliquer aux conservateurs du Québec, où l'appui pour le registre est manifestement élevé... Le vote des conservateurs, serait-il secrètement « fouetté »?

Although we believe that an issue as important as gun control should NOT be subject to a free vote, the Conservatives claim that MPs should vote according the wishes of their constituents. This, however, does not seem to apply to Conservative members of parliament in Quebec, where public support for the registry remains decidedly high... Or is the Conservative vote being secretly whipped?

— Le Groupe des étudiants et diplômés de Polytechnique pour le contrôle des armes

(Nos soulignés)

Ms. Hoepner agrees the NDP is the key to her bill's survival. "The only way it won't be killed is if I get some NDP support," she said on Thursday ... Ms. Hoepner acknowledged she launched the bill as a private member as a tactical measure: It has a better chance of passing because of free votes allowed on private member's bills.

National Post, June 4, 2010,

<http://www.nationalpost.com/news/canada/controls+registry+fate/3115269/story.html>

"The vast majority of your constituents asked you to help scrap the long-gun registry ..."

Garry Breitzkreuz, email to NDP MPs, August 31, 2010, posted at

<http://www.cbc.ca/politics/insidepolitics/2010/08/cons-ndp-exchange-emails-on-long-gun-registry.html>

"I hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will put the call of their constituents above the orders of the Liberal leader." ... "We should have no more political games by members, like the member for Malpeque. The constituents deserve better." ... "We call on all opposition members who voted in favour of Bill C-391 at second reading to listen to their constituents, not the Liberal leader and to scrap the long gun registry."

Vic Toews, Minister of Public Safety, "Statements By Members", April 28, June 7 and 10 2010,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"Once again, I also ask that both the Liberal and NDP leaders do the right thing and allow all of their MPs to vote freely on this issue and have the ability to truly reflect their own beliefs and that of their constituents."

Candice Hoepner, "Statements By Members", June 17 2010, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"We call upon all opposition members who voted in favour of Bill C-391 at second reading to stand up for their constituents and vote to scrap the long gun registry once and for all."

Shelly Glove, Conservative member of the Standing Committee on Public Safety and National Security,

"Statements By Members", June 9 2010, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"No more political games by members ... the constituents deserve better."

Candice Hoepner, quoted in the Globe and Mail, Ottawa Notebook Column, June 8, 2010. "Liberals aim to put a bullet in bill to scrap gun registry", <http://www.theglobeandmail.com/news/politics/ottawa-notebook/liberals-aim-to-put-a-bullet-in-bill-to-scrap-gun-registry/article1596013/>

"The passing of this motion by the opposition parties is further evidence that they are more interested in playing partisan political games with the long gun registry than doing the right thing and speaking on behalf of their hard-working, law-abiding constituents"

Ben Lobb, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 7 2010,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

Hoepfner and the Conservatives argue NDP and Liberal MPs who vote to keep the gun registry will be defeated in the next election. "MPs will be held accountable by their constituents," Hoepfner said.

Edmonton Journal, June 4, 2010. "Future of gun registry is in Layton's hands",
http://www.edmontonjournal.com/mobile/story.html?id=3109848&utm_source=twitterfeed&utm_medium=twitter

"This vote by the opposition parties proves that when it comes to the wasteful and ineffective long gun registry, the opposition is more interested in playing political games than doing the right thing and standing up for their constituents."

Rick Norlock, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 4 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"Will he allow his vote to be whipped by the Liberal leader, or will he listen to the voices of his constituents instead? Those 20 opposition MPs who did the right thing at second reading and voted to scrap the long gun registry will have to explain to their constituents why they allowed their party bosses to whip their vote and silence their voices. When it comes to the long gun registry, MPs can either vote to keep it or vote to scrap it. It is that simple."

Brian Jean, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 4 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"Twelve NDP and eight Liberal Members of Parliament supported my bill at second reading. The question remains – what will those MPs do when it once again comes time to vote on this in the House?" Hoepfner continued. "Will they tow the party line and vote to keep the registry, or do the right thing, listen to their constituents, and vote to scrap the registry?"

Candice Hoepfner, Press Release, June 3, 2010. http://candicehoepfner.com/pg_news/details.asp?ID=159

"Mr. Speaker, constituents expect that democracy will be respected and those elected to Parliament will vote on their behalf. This is why the Liberal leader's decision to whip the vote on the long gun registry is so concerning. What will the members who voted for Bill C-391 at second reading do? Will they ignore the voices of their constituents? Will they allow their vote to be whipped by the Liberal leader? I urge all NDP and Liberal members, who voted for Bill C-391 at second reading, to listen to their constituents and not allow their votes to be determined by the Liberal leader"

Guy Lauzon, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 3 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"For the Liberal leader and the member for Ajax--Pickering the voices of constituents do not matter and the votes of Liberal MPs who supported Bill C-391 at second reading do not count."

Dave MacKenzy, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 2 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"When the Liberal leader attempts to ignore the will of his members' constituents, he proves that he is not in it for Canadians. He is only in it for himself."

Scott Armstrong, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 2 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=3>

"Would the parliamentary secretary please tell the House why NDP and Liberal MPs should listen to their constituents rather than their party whips before voting on Bill C-391?"

Scott Reid, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", May 28 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=3>

... Candice Hoepfner, the Manitoba Conservative MP behind the bill to abolish the registry, sent out letters to individual homes in the riding of PEI MP Wayne Easter ... "Dear Friend," her letter begins. "Does your Liberal MP stand up for what you believe in?" ... It seems the Liberal Leader is whipping the vote, she explains, and the voices of the eight MPs no longer count as he is "forcing them to support the long-gun registry." So what to do? She asks the constituents to contact their Liberal MP and "encourage him to stand up against Michael Ignatieff's attempts to force him to vote against your interests."

Globe and Mail, May 12, 2010. "Tories bend rules on partisan mail to blast gun registry",
<http://www.theglobeandmail.com/news/politics/ottawa-notebook/tories-bend-rules-on-partisan-mail-to-blast-gun-registry/article1565897/>

“Last Monday, much to the dismay of some of his caucus members, Liberal leader Michael Ignatieff said he would whip the vote and prevent Liberal MPs from voting to represent their constituents' wishes when the bill returns to the House for Final Reading.... It all sends a clear message that the Ignatieff Liberals and their coalition partners ... don't care much for democracy ... MPs need to remember that at the end of the day, we came here for a reason – to represent our constituents. Liberal MPs who supported ending the long-gun registry last November need to now stand up to their leader and stand up for their constituents. Their voters deserve nothing less.”

The Mark, May 10, 2010. “Blasting Bad Democracy. The Liberals are using undemocratic tactics to save Canada's wasteful and ineffective long-gun registry” By Candice Hoepfner, MP Portage-Lisgar,
<http://www.themarknews.com/articles/1450-blasting-bad-democracy>

“The Liberal leader is whipping his members to ignore their constituents and support the wasteful long gun registry. I hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will not deceive their constituents and change their votes.”

Randy Hoback, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, May 3 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“We hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will not deceive their constituents by changing their vote just to satisfy the Liberal leader.”

Kelly Block, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 30 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“I call upon the Liberal eight as well as my colleague from Wascana to stand up for their constituents and vote for their wishes and vote to end the long gun registry.”

Tom Lukiwsk, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 30 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“Mr. Speaker, sadly, the Liberal leader is whipping his members to ignore their conscience and their constituents and to vote for the wasteful long gun registry.”

Brent Rathgeber, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 28 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>

“However, what they should do is tell their constituents that they will ignore the Liberal leader's direction and vote with their constituents.”

Blake Richards, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 22nd 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>

CITATIONS DE CANDICE HOEPNER ET SES COLLÈGUES (Mai – Août 2010)

Bien que nous croyons qu'un sujet aussi important que le contrôle des armes ne devrait PAS faire l'objet d'un vote libre, les conservateurs clament haut et fort que les députés devraient voter selon les souhaits de leurs électeurs. Or, ce principe ne semble pas s'appliquer aux conservateurs du Québec, où l'appui pour le registre est manifestement élevé... Le vote des conservateurs, serait-il secrètement « fouetté »?

Although we believe that an issue as important as gun control should NOT be subject to a free vote, the Conservatives claim that MPs should vote according the wishes of their constituents. This, however, does not seem to apply to Conservative members of parliament in Quebec, where public support for the registry remains decidedly high... Or is the Conservative vote being secretly whipped?

— Le Groupe des étudiants et diplômés de Polytechnique pour le contrôle des armes

(Nos soulignés)

Ms. Hoepner agrees the NDP is the key to her bill's survival. "The only way it won't be killed is if I get some NDP support," she said on Thursday ... Ms. Hoepner acknowledged she launched the bill as a private member as a tactical measure: It has a better chance of passing because of free votes allowed on private member's bills.

National Post, June 4, 2010,

<http://www.nationalpost.com/news/canada/controls+registry+fate/3115269/story.html>

"The vast majority of your constituents asked you to help scrap the long-gun registry ..."

Garry Breitkreuz, email to NDP MPs, August 31, 2010, posted at

<http://www.cbc.ca/politics/insidepolitics/2010/08/cons-ndp-exchange-emails-on-long-gun-registry.html>

"I hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will put the call of their constituents above the orders of the Liberal leader." ... "We should have no more political games by members, like the member for Malpeque. The constituents deserve better." ... "We call on all opposition members who voted in favour of Bill C-391 at second reading to listen to their constituents, not the Liberal leader and to scrap the long gun registry."

Vic Toews, Minister of Public Safety, "Statements By Members", April 28, June 7 and 10 2010,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"Once again, I also ask that both the Liberal and NDP leaders do the right thing and allow all of their MPs to vote freely on this issue and have the ability to truly reflect their own beliefs and that of their constituents."

Candice Hoepner, "Statements By Members", June 17 2010, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"We call upon all opposition members who voted in favour of Bill C-391 at second reading to stand up for their constituents and vote to scrap the long gun registry once and for all."

Shelly Glove, Conservative member of the Standing Committee on Public Safety and National Security,

"Statements By Members", June 9 2010, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"No more political games by members ... the constituents deserve better."

Candice Hoepner, quoted in the Globe and Mail, Ottawa Notebook Column, June 8, 2010. "Liberals aim to put a bullet in bill to scrap gun registry", <http://www.theglobeandmail.com/news/politics/ottawa-notebook/liberals-aim-to-put-a-bullet-in-bill-to-scrap-gun-registry/article1596013/>

"The passing of this motion by the opposition parties is further evidence that they are more interested in playing partisan political games with the long gun registry than doing the right thing and speaking on behalf of their hard-working, law-abiding constituents"

Ben Lobb, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 7 2010,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

Hoeppepner and the Conservatives argue NDP and Liberal MPs who vote to keep the gun registry will be defeated in the next election. "MPs will be held accountable by their constituents," Hoeppepner said.

Edmonton Journal, June 4, 2010. "Future of gun registry is in Layton's hands",
http://www.edmontonjournal.com/mobile/story.html?id=3109848&utm_source=twitterfeed&utm_medium=twitter

"This vote by the opposition parties proves that when it comes to the wasteful and ineffective long gun registry, the opposition is more interested in playing political games than doing the right thing and standing up for their constituents."

Rick Norlock, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 4 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"Will he allow his vote to be whipped by the Liberal leader, or will he listen to the voices of his constituents instead? Those 20 opposition MPs who did the right thing at second reading and voted to scrap the long gun registry will have to explain to their constituents why they allowed their party bosses to whip their vote and silence their voices. When it comes to the long gun registry, MPs can either vote to keep it or vote to scrap it. It is that simple."

Brian Jean, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 4 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"Twelve NDP and eight Liberal Members of Parliament supported my bill at second reading. The question remains – what will those MPs do when it once again comes time to vote on this in the House?" Hoeppepner continued. "Will they tow the party line and vote to keep the registry, or do the right thing, listen to their constituents, and vote to scrap the registry?"

Candice Hoeppepner, Press Release, June 3, 2010. http://candicehoeppepner.com/pg_news/details.asp?ID=159

"Mr. Speaker, constituents expect that democracy will be respected and those elected to Parliament will vote on their behalf. This is why the Liberal leader's decision to whip the vote on the long gun registry is so concerning. What will the members who voted for Bill C-391 at second reading do? Will they ignore the voices of their constituents? Will they allow their vote to be whipped by the Liberal leader? I urge all NDP and Liberal members, who voted for Bill C-391 at second reading, to listen to their constituents and not allow their votes to be determined by the Liberal leader"

Guy Lauzon, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 3 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"For the Liberal leader and the member for Ajax--Pickering the voices of constituents do not matter and the votes of Liberal MPs who supported Bill C-391 at second reading do not count."

Dave MacKenzy, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 2 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"When the Liberal leader attempts to ignore the will of his members' constituents, he proves that he is not in it for Canadians. He is only in it for himself."

Scott Armstrong, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 2 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=3>

"Would the parliamentary secretary please tell the House why NDP and Liberal MPs should listen to their constituents rather than their party whips before voting on Bill C-391?"

Scott Reid, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", May 28 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=3>

... Candice Hoeppepner, the Manitoba Conservative MP behind the bill to abolish the registry, sent out letters to individual homes in the riding of PEI MP Wayne Easter ... "Dear Friend," her letter begins. "Does your Liberal MP stand up for what you believe in?" ... It seems the Liberal Leader is whipping the vote, she explains, and the voices of the eight MPs no longer count as he is "forcing them to support the long-gun registry." So what to do? She asks the constituents to contact their Liberal MP and "encourage him to stand up against Michael Ignatieff's attempts to force him to vote against your interests."

Globe and Mail, May 12, 2010. "Tories bend rules on partisan mail to blast gun registry",
<http://www.theglobeandmail.com/news/politics/ottawa-notebook/tories-bend-rules-on-partisan-mail-to-blast-gun-registry/article1565897/>

“Last Monday, much to the dismay of some of his caucus members, Liberal leader Michael Ignatieff said he would whip the vote and prevent Liberal MPs from voting to represent their constituents' wishes when the bill returns to the House for Final Reading.... It all sends a clear message that the Ignatieff Liberals and their coalition partners ... don't care much for democracy ... MPs need to remember that at the end of the day, we came here for a reason – to represent our constituents. Liberal MPs who supported ending the long-gun registry last November need to now stand up to their leader and stand up for their constituents. Their voters deserve nothing less.”

The Mark, May 10, 2010. “Blasting Bad Democracy. The Liberals are using undemocratic tactics to save Canada's wasteful and ineffective long-gun registry” By Candice Hoepfner, MP Portage-Lisgar,
<http://www.themarknews.com/articles/1450-blasting-bad-democracy>

“The Liberal leader is whipping his members to ignore their constituents and support the wasteful long gun registry. I hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will not deceive their constituents and change their votes.”

Randy Hoback, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, May 3 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“We hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will not deceive their constituents by changing their vote just to satisfy the Liberal leader.”

Kelly Block, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 30 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“I call upon the Liberal eight as well as my colleague from Wascana to stand up for their constituents and vote for their wishes and vote to end the long gun registry.”

Tom Lukiwsk, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 30 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“Mr. Speaker, sadly, the Liberal leader is whipping his members to ignore their conscience and their constituents and to vote for the wasteful long gun registry.”

Brent Rathgeber, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 28 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>

“However, what they should do is tell their constituents that they will ignore the Liberal leader's direction and vote with their constituents.”

Blake Richards, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 22nd 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>

CITATIONS DE CANDICE HOEPNER ET SES COLLÈGUES (Mai – Août 2010)

Bien que nous croyons qu'un sujet aussi important que le contrôle des armes ne devrait PAS faire l'objet d'un vote libre, les conservateurs clament haut et fort que les députés devraient voter selon les souhaits de leurs électeurs. Or, ce principe ne semble pas s'appliquer aux conservateurs du Québec, où l'appui pour le registre est manifestement élevé... Le vote des conservateurs, serait-il secrètement « fouetté »?

Although we believe that an issue as important as gun control should NOT be subject to a free vote, the Conservatives claim that MPs should vote according the wishes of their constituents. This, however, does not seem to apply to Conservative members of parliament in Quebec, where public support for the registry remains decidedly high... Or is the Conservative vote being secretly whipped?

— Le Groupe des étudiants et diplômés de Polytechnique pour le contrôle des armes

(Nos soulignés)

Ms. Hoepner agrees the NDP is the key to her bill's survival. "The only way it won't be killed is if I get some NDP support," she said on Thursday ... Ms. Hoepner acknowledged she launched the bill as a private member as a tactical measure: It has a better chance of passing because of free votes allowed on private member's bills.

National Post, June 4, 2010,

<http://www.nationalpost.com/news/canada/controls+registry+fate/3115269/story.html>

"The vast majority of your constituents asked you to help scrap the long-gun registry ..."

Garry Breitreuz, email to NDP MPs, August 31, 2010, posted at

<http://www.cbc.ca/politics/insidepolitics/2010/08/cons-ndp-exchange-emails-on-long-gun-registry.html>

"I hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will put the call of their constituents above the orders of the Liberal leader." ... "We should have no more political games by members, like the member for Malpeque. The constituents deserve better." ... "We call on all opposition members who voted in favour of Bill C-391 at second reading to listen to their constituents, not the Liberal leader and to scrap the long gun registry."

Vic Toews, Minister of Public Safety, "Statements By Members", April 28, June 7 and 10 2010,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"Once again, I also ask that both the Liberal and NDP leaders do the right thing and allow all of their MPs to vote freely on this issue and have the ability to truly reflect their own beliefs and that of their constituents."

Candice Hoepner, "Statements By Members", June 17 2010, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"We call upon all opposition members who voted in favour of Bill C-391 at second reading to stand up for their constituents and vote to scrap the long gun registry once and for all."

Shelly Glove, Conservative member of the Standing Committee on Public Safety and National Security,

"Statements By Members", June 9 2010, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"No more political games by members ... the constituents deserve better."

Candice Hoepner, quoted in the Globe and Mail, Ottawa Notebook Column, June 8, 2010. "Liberals aim to put a bullet in bill to scrap gun registry", <http://www.theglobeandmail.com/news/politics/ottawa-notebook/liberals-aim-to-put-a-bullet-in-bill-to-scrap-gun-registry/article1596013/>

"The passing of this motion by the opposition parties is further evidence that they are more interested in playing partisan political games with the long gun registry than doing the right thing and speaking on behalf of their hard-working, law-abiding constituents"

Ben Lobb, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 7 2010,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

Hoepfner and the Conservatives argue NDP and Liberal MPs who vote to keep the gun registry will be defeated in the next election. "MPs will be held accountable by their constituents," Hoepfner said.

Edmonton Journal, June 4, 2010. "Future of gun registry is in Layton's hands",
http://www.edmontonjournal.com/mobile/story.html?id=3109848&utm_source=twitterfeed&utm_medium=twitter

"This vote by the opposition parties proves that when it comes to the wasteful and ineffective long gun registry, the opposition is more interested in playing political games than doing the right thing and standing up for their constituents."

Rick Norlock, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 4 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"Will he allow his vote to be whipped by the Liberal leader, or will he listen to the voices of his constituents instead? Those 20 opposition MPs who did the right thing at second reading and voted to scrap the long gun registry will have to explain to their constituents why they allowed their party bosses to whip their vote and silence their voices. When it comes to the long gun registry, MPs can either vote to keep it or vote to scrap it. It is that simple."

Brian Jean, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 4 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"Twelve NDP and eight Liberal Members of Parliament supported my bill at second reading. The question remains – what will those MPs do when it once again comes time to vote on this in the House?" Hoepfner continued. "Will they tow the party line and vote to keep the registry, or do the right thing, listen to their constituents, and vote to scrap the registry?"

Candice Hoepfner, Press Release, June 3, 2010. http://candicehoepfner.com/pg_news/details.asp?ID=159

"Mr. Speaker, constituents expect that democracy will be respected and those elected to Parliament will vote on their behalf. This is why the Liberal leader's decision to whip the vote on the long gun registry is so concerning. What will the members who voted for Bill C-391 at second reading do? Will they ignore the voices of their constituents? Will they allow their vote to be whipped by the Liberal leader? I urge all NDP and Liberal members, who voted for Bill C-391 at second reading, to listen to their constituents and not allow their votes to be determined by the Liberal leader"

Guy Lauzon, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 3 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"For the Liberal leader and the member for Ajax--Pickering the voices of constituents do not matter and the votes of Liberal MPs who supported Bill C-391 at second reading do not count."

Dave MacKenzy, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 2 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"When the Liberal leader attempts to ignore the will of his members' constituents, he proves that he is not in it for Canadians. He is only in it for himself."

Scott Armstrong, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 2 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=3>

"Would the parliamentary secretary please tell the House why NDP and Liberal MPs should listen to their constituents rather than their party whips before voting on Bill C-391?"

Scott Reid, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", May 28 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=3>

... Candice Hoepfner, the Manitoba Conservative MP behind the bill to abolish the registry, sent out letters to individual homes in the riding of PEI MP Wayne Easter ... "Dear Friend," her letter begins. "Does your Liberal MP stand up for what you believe in?" ... It seems the Liberal Leader is whipping the vote, she explains, and the voices of the eight MPs no longer count as he is "forcing them to support the long-gun registry." So what to do? She asks the constituents to contact their Liberal MP and "encourage him to stand up against Michael Ignatieff's attempts to force him to vote against your interests."

Globe and Mail, May 12, 2010. "Tories bend rules on partisan mail to blast gun registry",
<http://www.theglobeandmail.com/news/politics/ottawa-notebook/tories-bend-rules-on-partisan-mail-to-blast-gun-registry/article1565897/>

“Last Monday, much to the dismay of some of his caucus members, Liberal leader Michael Ignatieff said he would whip the vote and prevent Liberal MPs from voting to represent their constituents' wishes when the bill returns to the House for Final Reading.... It all sends a clear message that the Ignatieff Liberals and their coalition partners ... don't care much for democracy ... MPs need to remember that at the end of the day, we came here for a reason – to represent our constituents. Liberal MPs who supported ending the long-gun registry last November need to now stand up to their leader and stand up for their constituents. Their voters deserve nothing less.”

The Mark, May 10, 2010. “Blasting Bad Democracy. The Liberals are using undemocratic tactics to save Canada's wasteful and ineffective long-gun registry” By Candice Hoepfner, MP Portage-Lisgar,
<http://www.themarknews.com/articles/1450-blasting-bad-democracy>

“The Liberal leader is whipping his members to ignore their constituents and support the wasteful long gun registry. I hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will not deceive their constituents and change their votes.”

Randy Hoback, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, May 3 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“We hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will not deceive their constituents by changing their vote just to satisfy the Liberal leader.”

Kelly Block, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 30 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“I call upon the Liberal eight as well as my colleague from Wascana to stand up for their constituents and vote for their wishes and vote to end the long gun registry.”

Tom Lukiwsk, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 30 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“Mr. Speaker, sadly, the Liberal leader is whipping his members to ignore their conscience and their constituents and to vote for the wasteful long gun registry.”

Brent Rathgeber, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 28 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>

“However, what they should do is tell their constituents that they will ignore the Liberal leader's direction and vote with their constituents.”

Blake Richards, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 22nd 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>

CITATIONS DE CANDICE HOEPNER ET SES COLLÈGUES (Mai – Août 2010)

Bien que nous croyons qu'un sujet aussi important que le contrôle des armes ne devrait PAS faire l'objet d'un vote libre, les conservateurs clament haut et fort que les députés devraient voter selon les souhaits de leurs électeurs. Or, ce principe ne semble pas s'appliquer aux conservateurs du Québec, où l'appui pour le registre est manifestement élevé... Le vote des conservateurs, serait-il secrètement « fouetté »?

Although we believe that an issue as important as gun control should NOT be subject to a free vote, the Conservatives claim that MPs should vote according the wishes of their constituents. This, however, does not seem to apply to Conservative members of parliament in Quebec, where public support for the registry remains decidedly high... Or is the Conservative vote being secretly whipped?

— Le Groupe des étudiants et diplômés de Polytechnique pour le contrôle des armes

(Nos soulignés)

Ms. Hoepner agrees the NDP is the key to her bill's survival. "The only way it won't be killed is if I get some NDP support," she said on Thursday ... Ms. Hoepner acknowledged she launched the bill as a private member as a tactical measure: It has a better chance of passing because of free votes allowed on private member's bills.

National Post, June 4, 2010,

<http://www.nationalpost.com/news/canada/controls+registry+fate/3115269/story.html>

"The vast majority of your constituents asked you to help scrap the long-gun registry ..."

Garry Breitreuz, email to NDP MPs, August 31, 2010, posted at

<http://www.cbc.ca/politics/insidepolitics/2010/08/cons-ndp-exchange-emails-on-long-gun-registry.html>

"I hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will put the call of their constituents above the orders of the Liberal leader." ... "We should have no more political games by members, like the member for Malpeque. The constituents deserve better." ... "We call on all opposition members who voted in favour of Bill C-391 at second reading to listen to their constituents, not the Liberal leader and to scrap the long gun registry."

Vic Toews, Minister of Public Safety, "Statements By Members", April 28, June 7 and 10 2010,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"Once again, I also ask that both the Liberal and NDP leaders do the right thing and allow all of their MPs to vote freely on this issue and have the ability to truly reflect their own beliefs and that of their constituents."

Candice Hoepner, "Statements By Members", June 17 2010, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"We call upon all opposition members who voted in favour of Bill C-391 at second reading to stand up for their constituents and vote to scrap the long gun registry once and for all."

Shelly Glove, Conservative member of the Standing Committee on Public Safety and National Security,

"Statements By Members", June 9 2010, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"No more political games by members ... the constituents deserve better."

Candice Hoepner, quoted in the Globe and Mail, Ottawa Notebook Column, June 8, 2010. "Liberals aim to put a bullet in bill to scrap gun registry", <http://www.theglobeandmail.com/news/politics/ottawa-notebook/liberals-aim-to-put-a-bullet-in-bill-to-scrap-gun-registry/article1596013/>

"The passing of this motion by the opposition parties is further evidence that they are more interested in playing partisan political games with the long gun registry than doing the right thing and speaking on behalf of their hard-working, law-abiding constituents"

Ben Lobb, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 7 2010,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

Hoepfner and the Conservatives argue NDP and Liberal MPs who vote to keep the gun registry will be defeated in the next election. "MPs will be held accountable by their constituents," Hoepfner said.

Edmonton Journal, June 4, 2010. "Future of gun registry is in Layton's hands",
http://www.edmontonjournal.com/mobile/story.html?id=3109848&utm_source=twitterfeed&utm_medium=twitter

"This vote by the opposition parties proves that when it comes to the wasteful and ineffective long gun registry, the opposition is more interested in playing political games than doing the right thing and standing up for their constituents."

Rick Norlock, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 4 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"Will he allow his vote to be whipped by the Liberal leader, or will he listen to the voices of his constituents instead? Those 20 opposition MPs who did the right thing at second reading and voted to scrap the long gun registry will have to explain to their constituents why they allowed their party bosses to whip their vote and silence their voices. When it comes to the long gun registry, MPs can either vote to keep it or vote to scrap it. It is that simple."

Brian Jean, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 4 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"Twelve NDP and eight Liberal Members of Parliament supported my bill at second reading. The question remains – what will those MPs do when it once again comes time to vote on this in the House?" Hoepfner continued. "Will they tow the party line and vote to keep the registry, or do the right thing, listen to their constituents, and vote to scrap the registry?"

Candice Hoepfner, Press Release, June 3, 2010. http://candicehoepfner.com/pg_news/details.asp?ID=159

"Mr. Speaker, constituents expect that democracy will be respected and those elected to Parliament will vote on their behalf. This is why the Liberal leader's decision to whip the vote on the long gun registry is so concerning. What will the members who voted for Bill C-391 at second reading do? Will they ignore the voices of their constituents? Will they allow their vote to be whipped by the Liberal leader? I urge all NDP and Liberal members, who voted for Bill C-391 at second reading, to listen to their constituents and not allow their votes to be determined by the Liberal leader"

Guy Lauzon, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 3 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"For the Liberal leader and the member for Ajax--Pickering the voices of constituents do not matter and the votes of Liberal MPs who supported Bill C-391 at second reading do not count."

Dave MacKenzy, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 2 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"When the Liberal leader attempts to ignore the will of his members' constituents, he proves that he is not in it for Canadians. He is only in it for himself."

Scott Armstrong, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 2 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=3>

"Would the parliamentary secretary please tell the House why NDP and Liberal MPs should listen to their constituents rather than their party whips before voting on Bill C-391?"

Scott Reid, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", May 28 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=3>

... Candice Hoepfner, the Manitoba Conservative MP behind the bill to abolish the registry, sent out letters to individual homes in the riding of PEI MP Wayne Easter ... "Dear Friend," her letter begins. "Does your Liberal MP stand up for what you believe in?" ... It seems the Liberal Leader is whipping the vote, she explains, and the voices of the eight MPs no longer count as he is "forcing them to support the long-gun registry." So what to do? She asks the constituents to contact their Liberal MP and "encourage him to stand up against Michael Ignatieff's attempts to force him to vote against your interests."

Globe and Mail, May 12, 2010. "Tories bend rules on partisan mail to blast gun registry",
<http://www.theglobeandmail.com/news/politics/ottawa-notebook/tories-bend-rules-on-partisan-mail-to-blast-gun-registry/article1565897/>

“Last Monday, much to the dismay of some of his caucus members, Liberal leader Michael Ignatieff said he would whip the vote and prevent Liberal MPs from voting to represent their constituents' wishes when the bill returns to the House for Final Reading.... It all sends a clear message that the Ignatieff Liberals and their coalition partners ... don't care much for democracy ... MPs need to remember that at the end of the day, we came here for a reason – to represent our constituents. Liberal MPs who supported ending the long-gun registry last November need to now stand up to their leader and stand up for their constituents. Their voters deserve nothing less.”

The Mark, May 10, 2010. “Blasting Bad Democracy. The Liberals are using undemocratic tactics to save Canada's wasteful and ineffective long-gun registry” By Candice Hoepfner, MP Portage-Lisgar,
<http://www.themarknews.com/articles/1450-blasting-bad-democracy>

“The Liberal leader is whipping his members to ignore their constituents and support the wasteful long gun registry. I hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will not deceive their constituents and change their votes.”

Randy Hoback, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, May 3 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“We hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will not deceive their constituents by changing their vote just to satisfy the Liberal leader.”

Kelly Block, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 30 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“I call upon the Liberal eight as well as my colleague from Wascana to stand up for their constituents and vote for their wishes and vote to end the long gun registry.”

Tom Lukiwsk, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 30 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“Mr. Speaker, sadly, the Liberal leader is whipping his members to ignore their conscience and their constituents and to vote for the wasteful long gun registry.”

Brent Rathgeber, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 28 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>

“However, what they should do is tell their constituents that they will ignore the Liberal leader's direction and vote with their constituents.”

Blake Richards, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 22nd 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>

CITATIONS DE CANDICE HOEPNER ET SES COLLÈGUES (Mai – Août 2010)

Bien que nous croyons qu'un sujet aussi important que le contrôle des armes ne devrait PAS faire l'objet d'un vote libre, les conservateurs clament haut et fort que les députés devraient voter selon les souhaits de leurs électeurs. Or, ce principe ne semble pas s'appliquer aux conservateurs du Québec, où l'appui pour le registre est manifestement élevé... Le vote des conservateurs, serait-il secrètement « fouetté »?

Although we believe that an issue as important as gun control should NOT be subject to a free vote, the Conservatives claim that MPs should vote according the wishes of their constituents. This, however, does not seem to apply to Conservative members of parliament in Quebec, where public support for the registry remains decidedly high... Or is the Conservative vote being secretly whipped?

— Le Groupe des étudiants et diplômés de Polytechnique pour le contrôle des armes

(Nos soulignés)

Ms. Hoepner agrees the NDP is the key to her bill's survival. "The only way it won't be killed is if I get some NDP support," she said on Thursday ... Ms. Hoepner acknowledged she launched the bill as a private member as a tactical measure: It has a better chance of passing because of free votes allowed on private member's bills.

National Post, June 4, 2010,

<http://www.nationalpost.com/news/canada/controls+registry+fate/3115269/story.html>

"The vast majority of your constituents asked you to help scrap the long-gun registry ..."

Garry Breitkreuz, email to NDP MPs, August 31, 2010, posted at

<http://www.cbc.ca/politics/insidepolitics/2010/08/cons-ndp-exchange-emails-on-long-gun-registry.html>

"I hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will put the call of their constituents above the orders of the Liberal leader." ... "We should have no more political games by members, like the member for Malpeque. The constituents deserve better." ... "We call on all opposition members who voted in favour of Bill C-391 at second reading to listen to their constituents, not the Liberal leader and to scrap the long gun registry."

Vic Toews, Minister of Public Safety, "Statements By Members", April 28, June 7 and 10 2010,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"Once again, I also ask that both the Liberal and NDP leaders do the right thing and allow all of their MPs to vote freely on this issue and have the ability to truly reflect their own beliefs and that of their constituents."

Candice Hoepner, "Statements By Members", June 17 2010, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"We call upon all opposition members who voted in favour of Bill C-391 at second reading to stand up for their constituents and vote to scrap the long gun registry once and for all."

Shelly Glove, Conservative member of the Standing Committee on Public Safety and National Security,

"Statements By Members", June 9 2010, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"No more political games by members ... the constituents deserve better."

Candice Hoepner, quoted in the Globe and Mail, Ottawa Notebook Column, June 8, 2010. "Liberals aim to put a bullet in bill to scrap gun registry", <http://www.theglobeandmail.com/news/politics/ottawa-notebook/liberals-aim-to-put-a-bullet-in-bill-to-scrap-gun-registry/article1596013/>

"The passing of this motion by the opposition parties is further evidence that they are more interested in playing partisan political games with the long gun registry than doing the right thing and speaking on behalf of their hard-working, law-abiding constituents"

Ben Lobb, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 7 2010,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

Hoeppepner and the Conservatives argue NDP and Liberal MPs who vote to keep the gun registry will be defeated in the next election. "MPs will be held accountable by their constituents," Hoeppepner said.

Edmonton Journal, June 4, 2010. "Future of gun registry is in Layton's hands",
http://www.edmontonjournal.com/mobile/story.html?id=3109848&utm_source=twitterfeed&utm_medium=twitter

"This vote by the opposition parties proves that when it comes to the wasteful and ineffective long gun registry, the opposition is more interested in playing political games than doing the right thing and standing up for their constituents."

Rick Norlock, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 4 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"Will he allow his vote to be whipped by the Liberal leader, or will he listen to the voices of his constituents instead? Those 20 opposition MPs who did the right thing at second reading and voted to scrap the long gun registry will have to explain to their constituents why they allowed their party bosses to whip their vote and silence their voices. When it comes to the long gun registry, MPs can either vote to keep it or vote to scrap it. It is that simple."

Brian Jean, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 4 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"Twelve NDP and eight Liberal Members of Parliament supported my bill at second reading. The question remains – what will those MPs do when it once again comes time to vote on this in the House?" Hoeppepner continued. "Will they tow the party line and vote to keep the registry, or do the right thing, listen to their constituents, and vote to scrap the registry?"

Candice Hoeppepner, Press Release, June 3, 2010. http://candicehoeppepner.com/pg_news/details.asp?ID=159

"Mr. Speaker, constituents expect that democracy will be respected and those elected to Parliament will vote on their behalf. This is why the Liberal leader's decision to whip the vote on the long gun registry is so concerning. What will the members who voted for Bill C-391 at second reading do? Will they ignore the voices of their constituents? Will they allow their vote to be whipped by the Liberal leader? I urge all NDP and Liberal members, who voted for Bill C-391 at second reading, to listen to their constituents and not allow their votes to be determined by the Liberal leader"

Guy Lauzon, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 3 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"For the Liberal leader and the member for Ajax--Pickering the voices of constituents do not matter and the votes of Liberal MPs who supported Bill C-391 at second reading do not count."

Dave MacKenzy, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 2 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"When the Liberal leader attempts to ignore the will of his members' constituents, he proves that he is not in it for Canadians. He is only in it for himself."

Scott Armstrong, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 2 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=3>

"Would the parliamentary secretary please tell the House why NDP and Liberal MPs should listen to their constituents rather than their party whips before voting on Bill C-391?"

Scott Reid, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", May 28 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=3>

... Candice Hoeppepner, the Manitoba Conservative MP behind the bill to abolish the registry, sent out letters to individual homes in the riding of PEI MP Wayne Easter ... "Dear Friend," her letter begins. "Does your Liberal MP stand up for what you believe in?" ... It seems the Liberal Leader is whipping the vote, she explains, and the voices of the eight MPs no longer count as he is "forcing them to support the long-gun registry." So what to do? She asks the constituents to contact their Liberal MP and "encourage him to stand up against Michael Ignatieff's attempts to force him to vote against your interests."

Globe and Mail, May 12, 2010. "Tories bend rules on partisan mail to blast gun registry",
<http://www.theglobeandmail.com/news/politics/ottawa-notebook/tories-bend-rules-on-partisan-mail-to-blast-gun-registry/article1565897/>

"Last Monday, much to the dismay of some of his caucus members, Liberal leader Michael Ignatieff said he would whip the vote and prevent Liberal MPs from voting to represent their constituents' wishes when the bill returns to the House for Final Reading.... It all sends a clear message that the Ignatieff Liberals and their coalition partners ... don't care much for democracy ... MPs need to remember that at the end of the day, we came here for a reason – to represent our constituents. Liberal MPs who supported ending the long-gun registry last November need to now stand up to their leader and stand up for their constituents. Their voters deserve nothing less."

The Mark, May 10, 2010. "Blasting Bad Democracy. The Liberals are using undemocratic tactics to save Canada's wasteful and ineffective long-gun registry" By Candice Hoepfner, MP Portage-Lisgar,
<http://www.themarknews.com/articles/1450-blasting-bad-democracy>

"The Liberal leader is whipping his members to ignore their constituents and support the wasteful long gun registry. I hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will not deceive their constituents and change their votes."

Randy Hoback, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", May 3 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

"We hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will not deceive their constituents by changing their vote just to satisfy the Liberal leader."

Kelly Block, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", April 30 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

"I call upon the Liberal eight as well as my colleague from Wascana to stand up for their constituents and vote for their wishes and vote to end the long gun registry."

Tom Lukiwsk, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", April 30 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

"Mr. Speaker, sadly, the Liberal leader is whipping his members to ignore their conscience and their constituents and to vote for the wasteful long gun registry."

Brent Rathgeber, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", April 28 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>

"However, what they should do is tell their constituents that they will ignore the Liberal leader's direction and vote with their constituents."

Blake Richards, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", April 22nd 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>

CITATIONS DE CANDICE HOEPNER ET SES COLLÈGUES (Mai – Août 2010)

Bien que nous croyons qu'un sujet aussi important que le contrôle des armes ne devrait PAS faire l'objet d'un vote libre, les conservateurs clament haut et fort que les députés devraient voter selon les souhaits de leurs électeurs. Or, ce principe ne semble pas s'appliquer aux conservateurs du Québec, où l'appui pour le registre est manifestement élevé... Le vote des conservateurs, serait-il secrètement « fouetté »?

Although we believe that an issue as important as gun control should NOT be subject to a free vote, the Conservatives claim that MPs should vote according the wishes of their constituents. This, however, does not seem to apply to Conservative members of parliament in Quebec, where public support for the registry remains decidedly high... Or is the Conservative vote being secretly whipped?

— Le Groupe des étudiants et diplômés de Polytechnique pour le contrôle des armes

(Nos soulignés)

Ms. Hoepner agrees the NDP is the key to her bill's survival. "The only way it won't be killed is if I get some NDP support," she said on Thursday ... Ms. Hoepner acknowledged she launched the bill as a private member as a tactical measure: It has a better chance of passing because of free votes allowed on private member's bills.

National Post, June 4, 2010,

<http://www.nationalpost.com/news/canada/controls+registry+fate/3115269/story.html>

"The vast majority of your constituents asked you to help scrap the long-gun registry ..."

Garry Breitkreuz, email to NDP MPs, August 31, 2010, posted at

<http://www.cbc.ca/politics/insidepolitics/2010/08/cons-ndp-exchange-emails-on-long-gun-registry.html>

"I hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will put the call of their constituents above the orders of the Liberal leader." ... "We should have no more political games by members, like the member for Malpeque. The constituents deserve better." ... "We call on all opposition members who voted in favour of Bill C-391 at second reading to listen to their constituents, not the Liberal leader and to scrap the long gun registry."

Vic Toews, Minister of Public Safety, "Statements By Members", April 28, June 7 and 10 2010,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"Once again, I also ask that both the Liberal and NDP leaders do the right thing and allow all of their MPs to vote freely on this issue and have the ability to truly reflect their own beliefs and that of their constituents."

Candice Hoepner, "Statements By Members", June 17 2010, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"We call upon all opposition members who voted in favour of Bill C-391 at second reading to stand up for their constituents and vote to scrap the long gun registry once and for all."

Shelly Glove, Conservative member of the Standing Committee on Public Safety and National Security,

"Statements By Members", June 9 2010, <http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/>

"No more political games by members ... the constituents deserve better."

Candice Hoepner, quoted in the Globe and Mail, Ottawa Notebook Column, June 8, 2010. "Liberals aim to put a bullet in bill to scrap gun registry", <http://www.theglobeandmail.com/news/politics/ottawa-notebook/liberals-aim-to-put-a-bullet-in-bill-to-scrap-gun-registry/article1596013/>

"The passing of this motion by the opposition parties is further evidence that they are more interested in playing partisan political games with the long gun registry than doing the right thing and speaking on behalf of their hard-working, law-abiding constituents"

Ben Lobb, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 7 2010,

<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

Hoeppepner and the Conservatives argue NDP and Liberal MPs who vote to keep the gun registry will be defeated in the next election. "MPs will be held accountable by their constituents," Hoeppepner said.

Edmonton Journal, June 4, 2010. "Future of gun registry is in Layton's hands",
http://www.edmontonjournal.com/mobile/story.html?id=3109848&utm_source=twitterfeed&utm_medium=twitter

"This vote by the opposition parties proves that when it comes to the wasteful and ineffective long gun registry, the opposition is more interested in playing political games than doing the right thing and standing up for their constituents."

Rick Norlock, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 4 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"Will he allow his vote to be whipped by the Liberal leader, or will he listen to the voices of his constituents instead? Those 20 opposition MPs who did the right thing at second reading and voted to scrap the long gun registry will have to explain to their constituents why they allowed their party bosses to whip their vote and silence their voices. When it comes to the long gun registry, MPs can either vote to keep it or vote to scrap it. It is that simple."

Brian Jean, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 4 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"Twelve NDP and eight Liberal Members of Parliament supported my bill at second reading. The question remains – what will those MPs do when it once again comes time to vote on this in the House?" Hoeppepner continued. "Will they tow the party line and vote to keep the registry, or do the right thing, listen to their constituents, and vote to scrap the registry?"

Candice Hoeppepner, Press Release, June 3, 2010. http://candicehoeppepner.com/pg_news/details.asp?ID=159

"Mr. Speaker, constituents expect that democracy will be respected and those elected to Parliament will vote on their behalf. This is why the Liberal leader's decision to whip the vote on the long gun registry is so concerning. What will the members who voted for Bill C-391 at second reading do? Will they ignore the voices of their constituents? Will they allow their vote to be whipped by the Liberal leader? I urge all NDP and Liberal members, who voted for Bill C-391 at second reading, to listen to their constituents and not allow their votes to be determined by the Liberal leader"

Guy Lauzon, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 3 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"For the Liberal leader and the member for Ajax--Pickering the voices of constituents do not matter and the votes of Liberal MPs who supported Bill C-391 at second reading do not count."

Dave MacKenzy, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 2 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=2>

"When the Liberal leader attempts to ignore the will of his members' constituents, he proves that he is not in it for Canadians. He is only in it for himself."

Scott Armstrong, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", June 2 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=3>

"Would the parliamentary secretary please tell the House why NDP and Liberal MPs should listen to their constituents rather than their party whips before voting on Bill C-391?"

Scott Reid, Conservative MP, "Statements By Members", May 28 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=3>

... Candice Hoeppepner, the Manitoba Conservative MP behind the bill to abolish the registry, sent out letters to individual homes in the riding of PEI MP Wayne Easter ... "Dear Friend," her letter begins. "Does your Liberal MP stand up for what you believe in?" ... It seems the Liberal Leader is whipping the vote, she explains, and the voices of the eight MPs no longer count as he is "forcing them to support the long-gun registry." So what to do? She asks the constituents to contact their Liberal MP and "encourage him to stand up against Michael Ignatieff's attempts to force him to vote against your interests."

Globe and Mail, May 12, 2010. "Tories bend rules on partisan mail to blast gun registry",
<http://www.theglobeandmail.com/news/politics/ottawa-notebook/tories-bend-rules-on-partisan-mail-to-blast-gun-registry/article1565897/>

“Last Monday, much to the dismay of some of his caucus members, Liberal leader Michael Ignatieff said he would whip the vote and prevent Liberal MPs from voting to represent their constituents' wishes when the bill returns to the House for Final Reading.... It all sends a clear message that the Ignatieff Liberals and their coalition partners ... don't care much for democracy ... MPs need to remember that at the end of the day, we came here for a reason – to represent our constituents. Liberal MPs who supported ending the long-gun registry last November need to now stand up to their leader and stand up for their constituents. Their voters deserve nothing less.”

The Mark, May 10, 2010. “Blasting Bad Democracy. The Liberals are using undemocratic tactics to save Canada's wasteful and ineffective long-gun registry” By Candice Hoepfner, MP Portage-Lisgar,
<http://www.themarknews.com/articles/1450-blasting-bad-democracy>

“The Liberal leader is whipping his members to ignore their constituents and support the wasteful long gun registry. I hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will not deceive their constituents and change their votes.”

Randy Hoback, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, May 3 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“We hope that those Liberals who voted for Bill C-391 will not deceive their constituents by changing their vote just to satisfy the Liberal leader.”

Kelly Block, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 30 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“I call upon the Liberal eight as well as my colleague from Wascana to stand up for their constituents and vote for their wishes and vote to end the long gun registry.”

Tom Lukiwsk, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 30 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=5>

“Mr. Speaker, sadly, the Liberal leader is whipping his members to ignore their conscience and their constituents and to vote for the wasteful long gun registry.”

Brent Rathgeber, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 28 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>

“However, what they should do is tell their constituents that they will ignore the Liberal leader's direction and vote with their constituents.”

Blake Richards, Conservative MP, “Statements By Members”, April 22nd 2010,
<http://openparliament.ca/bills/2078/#page=6>